▶ Theatre Camp

Working collaboratively, students will select a picture book to produce as a play–developing sets and scenery, costumes and acting skills. Camp will culminate in a performance, open to family, friends and the public.

Theater Camps are led by Donna Northcott, who received her BA in theatre from Saint Louis University and an MA in theatre from Northwestern University. She now teaches theater at Lindenwood University. Northcott was the founding Artistic Director of St. Louis Shakespeare and Magic Smoking Monkey Theatre and has worked professionally as an actor, voiceover actor, director, playwright and costume designer. She has extensive experience organizing youth theater, having directed a Summer Shakespeare Boot Camp for high school students, the JCC Youth Theatre program and Summer Camp of the Arts and the St. Louis Science Center's Science Theatre Caravan.
