Guidelines

- To apply for a scholarship, submit a completed application prior to taking a course, class, workshop or conference. There is no limit to the number of applications you can submit.
- Scholarship monies will be paid directly to the sponsor of the course, class, workshop or conference you have selected on this application.
- Scholarships are awarded to cover the costs for tuition of courses, classes, workshops, programs, or conferences and do not include travel, hotel or other associated expenses.
- Scholarships will be awarded only for educational classes, workshops, courses, and conferences related to personal property appraising.
- It is the responsibility of the applicant to complete and submit the application within the time frame noted above to be considered for a scholarship.

Eligibility

- Students, new & experienced appraisers, or any individual wanting to further their educational development in the area of personal property appraising may apply.
- All scholarships are open to both new (less than 2 years experience) and experienced appraisers
- Applicants from all Appraisal Societies are welcome.
- Directors, officers, and employees of the International Society of Appraisers and the Foundation for Appraisal Education, members of the Foundation for Appraisal Education Scholarship Selection Committee and their relatives are not eligible to apply for Foundation for Appraisal Education Scholarships.
