Scholarship Application Essay:

Please craft and submit a one to two page typed essay that addresses the following:

Describe your demonstrated commitment to home infusion nursing, and to the larger home and specialty infusion therapy community, by sharing key examples of care provision, quality improvements, patient-centered compassion and/or leadership within your professional role(s) in our field.

If you were to win the 2015 Lynn Giglione Memorial NHIF Scholarship Award for Home and Specialty Infusion Nursing and, thus, attend the 2015 NHIA Annual Conference & Exposition, share how you would plan to further advance your own home infusion nursing skills, commitment and/or leadership abilities—as well as the skills of your colleagues—so as to ultimately enhance home infusion nursing in providing patient care.

Letter of Recommendation

A Letter of Recommendation from a supervisor or key leader within your organization on his/her company stationery should be sent directly to NHIF (at one of the NHIF contact options shown below), outlining your abilities and commitment to advancing home and specialty infusion nursing.
