Tax residence definition – individual

An individual will be regarded as being tax resident in Ireland for a tax year if she/he either:

- spends 183 days or more in Ireland in that tax year, or
- has a combined presence of 280 days in Ireland, taking into account the number of days spent in Ireland in that tax year together with the number of days spent in Ireland in the preceding year. Presence in a tax year by an individual of not more than 30 days in Ireland will not be reckoned for the purpose of applying the two-year test. Presence in Ireland for a day means the personal presence of an individual:
 - at the end of the day (midnight) for tax years 2008 and earlier, and
 - at any time during that day for tax year 2009 onwards.

Ordinary tax residence definition – individual

The term 'ordinary residence' as distinct from 'residence' relates to a person's normal pattern of life and denotes residence in a place with some degree of continuity. An individual who has been resident in Ireland for three consecutive tax years becomes ordinarily resident with effect from the commencement of the fourth tax year.

An individual who has been ordinarily resident in Ireland ceases to be ordinarily resident at the end of the third consecutive tax year in which s/he is not resident. Thus, an individual who is resident and ordinarily resident in Ireland in 2009 and departs from Ireland in that year will remain ordinarily resident up to the end of the tax year 2012.

All parties are required by the Irish Revenue Commissioners to make the following declaration, which is in a format authorised by them, in order to receive payments without deduction of Irish tax.

I/We* declare that

- I/We* have read the explanation of the terms detailed in the 'Tax residence definitions' above.
- I am/We are* the applicant(s) in respect of which this declaration is being made.
- I am/We are* not resident or ordinarily resident in Ireland.
- I/We* hereby undertake(s) to inform the Company of any change in my/our country of residence during the life of the account/policy.

(* Delete as appropriate).
