

This contract is made this _____ day of _____, 20____, between _____ (name of Engager), hereafter referred to as “the Engager” and
_____ (name of Artist), hereafter referred to as “the Artist”.

The provisions of this contract take into account the CADA/West Basic Dance Policy and accompanying CADA/West Fees and Rates Standards document. As the Basic Dance Policy document is a guideline of minimum professional standards, it is understood by the Engager and the Dancer that there may be conditions and terms that are specific to the demands of this contract. The Engager undertakes to clearly mark each section where a term or condition is to be negotiated that is different from the stated minimum/or maximum and to clearly specify these changes in an attached schedule or rider. The Dancer will be given a minimum of 24hrs to fully consider this contract and has the right to request clarification from the Engager on any section which causes the Dancer concern or confusion prior to signing. The Dancer has the right to propose changes to the terms or conditions specified by the Engager if the Dancer feels that those terms or conditions are unsafe, unhealthy, or not fairly compensated financially. Any renegotiations of specified terms or conditions in this contract are to be conducted in good faith by both the Engager and the Dancer towards a mutual resolution and specified in writing.
