

St. Mary, Good Shepherd and St. James Christian Formation Athletic Policy Protocol

1. Christian Formation programs will follow all Archdiocese of Milwaukee protocols for athletic eligibility.
2. Christian Formation students enrolled in grades 5-8 and in good academic standing (minimum C average in all classes) will be allowed to participate in St. Mary parish athletic programs.
3. Students partaking in athletics must maintain a regular attendance pattern as well as participation in Christian Formation classes. Students may not miss more than 2 classes during an athletic season. On the second absence, coaches and parents will be notified by e-mail of student's athletic probation by their Christian Formation Minister. On the third absence, coaches and parents will be notified by e-mail of student's ineligibility to participate in the athletic program by their Christian Formation Minister.
4. Students participating in athletics must submit bottom half of this form with their most recent report card to athletics prior to participation in the sports program. (This form and report card will be turned over to the CF office.)
5. The CF Office will monitor grade reports and attendance.
