

Pro Bono Program Student Project Proposal

Instructions:

Individual students and student groups wishing to design their own pro bono projects should complete this form and submit it to the Pro Bono Program.

Electronic form-filling: Click on a line or in a box to fill out the form. Submit to the Pro Bono Program at probonoprogram@law.wisc.edu.

Paper form-filling: Print this form, fill out, and submit to Room 1348 of the Economic Justice Institute.

Someone from the UW Law School Pro Bono Program will follow up with you to confirm receipt of your proposal and schedule a meeting to review it. If you have any questions, please email probonoprogram@law.wisc.edu.

Applicant Information

Applicant Name: _____
Student Organization Affiliation (if applicable): _____
Address: _____
Email: _____
Phone: _____

Project Host

Name of Organization or Firm: _____
Address: _____
Email: _____
Website: _____
Phone: _____

Type of Organization: Law Firm Non-Profit Organization Other: _____

Organizational Mission and Services:

Has the student contacted the host to discuss the project? Yes No

Pro Bono Program Student Project Proposal

Project Supervisor

Project Supervisor: _____

Email: _____

Phone: _____

Has the project supervisor previously supervised law students? Yes No

If yes, please describe prior experience supervising law students:

Project Information

Please provide a statement describing the pro bono project and how it conforms to the program requirements. List specific tasks, research objectives, client work, and other activities student volunteers will perform. Pro bono guidelines require that projects: 1) make use of legal knowledge, apply legal skills, or are law-related; 2) not provide financial compensation or academic credit; and 3) serve clients of limited means. For further information on pro bono requirements, please visit <http://law.wisc.edu/probono/>.

Can additional students participate? _____

Student Training

All student volunteers must be trained by an attorney, law faculty member, or other licensed professional prior to participating in a pro bono project. Please provide a description of the training that will be provided, including detail about who will conduct the training and the training materials that will be used:

Hours of pre-project training, if applicable: _____

Student Supervision

Brief description of supervision (who will supervise, how often, and what are their qualifications):

Pro Bono Program Student Project Proposal

Project Timeframe

Project Schedule:

Single event – total number of hours: _____

Recurring project – hours per week: _____

Long-term project – due date: _____

Address where project will be performed: _____