The operation of Section 50(2) & (3) of the Labour Code of British Columbia Act is hereby excluded.

2.02 If no agreement is reached prior to the expiration of this agreement, this agreement shall be deemed to remain in full force and effect up to the time the Union goes on a legal strike or the Employer legally locks out the employees.

ARTICLE 3 – INTERPRETATION AND GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

3.01 Within thirty (30) days of the signing date of this Agreement the Employer and the Union shall each appoint two members to form a Joint Standing Committee. The names of such members shall be forwarded to the other party as soon as they are appointed. In case of vacancy on this committee from any cause the party not fully represented shall immediately appoint a new member to fill such vacancy.

3.02 As the first step in the grievance procedure set out herewith, if any difference of opinion as to the rights of the parties under this agreement or any dispute as to the construction or interpretation of any section or portion of this agreement takes place, representations shall first be made to the Pressroom Foreman or Chapel Chairman within five (5) days from the time the dispute comes to the attention of the party affected.

If the parties are unable to agree upon an arbiter then the Minister of Labour of the Province of British Columbia shall select the arbiter.

3.07 The Arbiter shall conduct the hearing within twenty (20) days from the date on which either party requested Arbitration.

3.08 Within thirty (30) days of completion of the hearing the Arbiter shall render his decision.

APPENDIX B

Personal Harassment

I. Policy Statement

The Alaska Highway News and the union are committed to the ideal of creating a working environment which is at all times supportive of the dignity and self esteem of individuals.

The Company will communicate this policy to all employees, provide appropriate education and training for supervisors and managers, establish a mechanism for dealing with complaints.

The policy will be embodied in all union agreements and employee handbooks.

Union employees may choose to pursue a complaint either by using the complaint procedures set out in this policy or following the grievance procedure in the collective agreement. The decision on which way to proceed shall be made by the complainant at Step 9 of Section IV herein. In the event that the complainant chooses to grieve under the collective agreement the dispute shall proceed directly to the Joint Standing Committee.

It is agreed that the President of the union will receive a copy of the Complaint Officer(s)' report at Step 8, Section IV herein and any other other written reports or findings after Step 8.

II. Definition

Personal harassment is any behavior by any person in the workplace that is directed at and is offensive to an employee, endangers an employee's job, undermines the performance of that job or threatens the economic livelihood of the employee.

Personal harassment may be defined as repeated, intentional, offensive comments or actions deliberately designed to demean an individual or to cause personal humiliation. The definition includes such blatant acts of misuse of power as intimidation, threats, blackmail and coercion. Also included is favoritism of one employee to the disadvantage of another.

Personal harassment occurs when an individual uses his/her authority or position, with its implicit power, to undermine, sabotage or otherwise interfere with the career of another employee.

The Company hereby agrees that the above-mentioned behavior will not be tolerated and persons conducting such behaviour will be appropriately reprimanded.

III. Prevention

a) This policy will be made available to all employees either in their union contract or employee handbook. In addition, it will be posted on all appropriate bulletin boards.

b) Employees and supervisors will receive education and/or training where applicable to enable them to recognize potential problems, assist with policy enforcement issues and in understanding the complaint procedures.

IV. Complaint Procedures

COMPLAINT OFFICER(S):

The Company shall identify Complaint Officer(s) for the purpose of this policy. The list of Complaint Officer(s) (see Schedule A attached) will be updated and published regularly, in consultation with the union. The list will include female contacts.

Complaint Officer(s) will have full authority to investigate the merits of the complaint and, while respecting the complainant's wish for confidentiality, conduct as quick and thorough an investigation as possible.

COMPLAINT AND INVESTIGATION PROCEDURE:

The complaint procedure must be flexible to achieve maximum accessibility and confidentiality. The recommended procedure for an employee who feels they are being harassed is as follows:

1. Tell the harasser clearly that the offending behaviour is NOT welcome. Remind the harasser that the behaviour is contrary to policy. The employee should keep a written record of dates, times, witnesses and nature of behaviour.

Often this is the simplest and most effective way to put an end to harassing and the Company encourages employees to take this action. However, victims of harassment are not obliged to confront the harasser and, if the harassee is unwilling or unable to do so, or if the misconduct continues after confrontation, the victim of harassment should report the offensive behaviour as outlined below.

2. A victim of harassment may meet with any of the Complaint Officer(s) to review the complaint procedure, definition of harassment, etc. The complainant will be informed of the alternate courses of action including formal investigation of the complaint or taking no further action if the complainant decides not to proceed.

3. If the complainant chooses to pursue the matter formally then a formal investigation will be undertaken. The complainant must submit a written complaint to trigger the investigation. The complainant will be kept informed of the progress of the investigation and input will be encouraged wherever possible.

4. The investigation will be commenced within three (3) work days and the complainant's identity will normally be made known to the alleged harasser.

5. The investigating Officer(s) will initiate and complete the investigation as soon as possible. The Officer(s) will have full authority to investigate as set out above.

6. Once the investigation is completed the findings will be made known to the complainant and alleged harasser by the Complaint Officer(s). This may be done in written form or in a meeting.

7. The Complaint Officer(s) will attempt to achieve resolution of the complaint at this point.

8. If the matter remains unresolved the Complaint Officer(s) shall submit a written report to the Vice-President, Personnel, (or President of the Company when applicable) outlining the facts, issues and recommended resolution. The Vice-President, Personnel, (or President of the Company when applicable) will then decide the issue and forward the decision to the complainant and (alleged) harasser in writing. The decision will be implemented immediately unless a further appeal or grievance ensues, as outlined in Section V following.

V. Appeal Procedures

1. Any party affected by this policy may appeal or grieve the decision of the Complaint Officer(s) or decision of the Vice-President (or President of the Company when applicable). Notice of intent to appeal or grieve must be made in writing to the Company President and President of the Union within seven (7) days of receiving a written decision which is disputed.

It is agreed that should a party to the dispute choose to grieve the matter via the collective agreement, the grievance would proceed directly to the Joint Standing committee.

2. The President of the Company will take a further appeal to an outside Disputes Resolution Officer (DRO). This person will be selected from the list in Schedule B attached hereto. This persons listed here have agreed to serve in the capacity of resolving disputes arising from the personal harassment policy. Their appointment is hereby confirmed by the parties to this agreement.

The decision of the DRO will be binding. Once finalized, the DRO will forward the decision to the complainant and the (alleged) harasser in writing. The decision will be implemented immediately. (Possible responses—see Schedule C attached).
