In addition to the products listed below that we make available to the general public, E.L. Achieve has developed professional development teacher handbooks and instructional units specific to implementing our initiatives – Systematic ELD and Constructing Meaning.

Because successful implementation of professional development depends on comprehensive planning, training, and ongoing support, our Teacher Handbooks and Instructional Units are available only to our partner districts engaged in our capacity-building model.

For more information on how to become a partner district, email info@elachieve.org or visit www.elachieve.org.
