

Take a break from your loan payments this November or December! If you could use a little extra cash to handle holiday expenses, we've got the answer. OFCU's Holiday Skip-A-Payment program means that you can skip your November or December loan payment this holiday season and then resume your next regular payment.

Sign up for OFCU's Holiday Skip-A-Payment program by completing the form below and returning it to any OFCU branch office prior to the due date of the loan you wish to skip.

Special notes to remember:

- A loan can only be skipped once within a 6 month period.
- New loans must have received 3 Payments to be eligible.
- All loan payments must be current to qualify.
- Funds for OFCU's Skip-A-Pay Program request must be available in your savings account or provided by check. In the event there are insufficient funds in your savings account your request will not be processed.
- This Skip-A-Payment request will not stop your payroll deduction or automatic debit from another financial institution unless requested in writing. If you do not request in writing that your payroll deduction or automatic debit be stopped, each payment amount will remain in your OFCU deposit account when received.
- All cosigners of the loan must agree to the OFCU Skip-A-Pay program and sign the request.
- A skip pay form must be completed for all accounts requested.

Please complete the following and return this form to any OFCU branch office for processing of your request for OFCU's Holiday Skip-A-Payment program.
