

Adding a Codicil to your Will

If you have an existing will, you may convey your charitable gift by simply adding a codicil, or addendum, to the document. This should include the following:

Codicil

I, _____, of the City of _____ County of _____, State of _____, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be a Codicil to my Last Will and Testament, dated _____, 20__:

First: I give and bequeath to the Goodwill Industries Foundation of Central Indiana Inc., a corporation chartered under the laws of the State of Indiana, with principal offices at 1635 W. Michigan Street, Indianapolis, IN 46222, Employer Identification Number 23-7148440, the sum of $_____.

Second: Except as herein modified, I hereby confirm my said Last Will and Testament.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto subscribed my name this _____ day of _____ 20__.

The foregoing instrument was the _____ day of _____, 20__.
Signed by the above testator, _____ in our presence; and said testator thereupon in our presence declared the same to be a Codicil to his Last Will and Testament, and requested each of us to sign the same as attesting witnesses; and we thereupon having first read this certificate, sign our names hereto as such witnesses, in the presence of the testator, and each in the presence of the other.

Important Note: Those using this sample are advised to use it only as a model and to adjust it accordingly for the requirements of Indiana or the state in which you reside. In order to give full effect to the interest of anyone making a codicil, you should review the provisions with your legal counsel to ensure that the request is feasible and does not disrupt the plan of your existing will.
