Workshop Descriptions

Tuesday October 18, 2011
2:00 – 5:00 pm

What's new? What's the difference? What now?

This session will explore the basics: What is the General Instruction of the Roman Missal (GIRM)? Why a new translation now? How does it apply to music? The four new settings (three commissioned Canadian settings and the ICEL chant setting) will be presented, as well as the chant version of the Exsultet.

Tuesday October 18, 2011
6:30 – 9:30 pm

Be Not Afraid: The GIRM for Musicians

This session will open up the GIRM and indicate how it can help musicians better understand the role of music in the liturgy, and your own role as a liturgical musician.

Wednesday October 19, 2011
9:00 am – 12 noon

The Joys of Psalmody: Not just the responsorial psalm!

The new GIRM and the revised Lectionary for Mass invite us to take the psalms seriously as the original music of the Judaeo-Christian tradition. We will explore this reality and identify psalms (and maybe even a few canticles) that every parish should have in their repertoire.
