WHO CANNOT BE INCLUDED IN A PA-40 NRC, NONRESIDENT CONSOLIDATED INCOME TAX RETURN

The entity may not include a nonresident owner (partner, member or shareholder) on the PA-40 NRC, Nonresident Consolidated Income Tax Return, if the nonresident owner has not elected to join in the filing of the PA-40 NRC, Nonresident Consolidated Income Tax Return. See Maintaining Records Signed Statements.

An estate or a trust may not be included in the filing of the PA-40 NRC, Nonresident Consolidated Income Tax Return, regardless of how the trust is taxed.

Another entity such as a partnership, S corporation or limited liability company may not be included in the filing of the PA-40 NRC, Nonresident Consolidated Income Tax Return.

WHO MAY FILE

An entity may file a PA-40 NRC, Nonresident Consolidated Income Tax Return, on behalf of its qualifying electing nonresident individual owners (partner, member, or shareholder). Please reference Maintaining Records – Signed Statements for further details.

There must be more than one nonresident owner included on the PA-40 NRC, Nonresident Consolidated Income Tax Return, to make an election to file this tax return and those owners must meet the filing requirements. See What To File.

 NOTE: Include only the individual nonresident owners that elect to be included on the PA-40 NRC, Nonresident Consolidated Income Tax Return.

FILING THE PA-20S/PA-65 INFORMATION RETURN

The filing requirements for the PA-20S/PA-65 do not change if the entity files a PA-40 NRC, Nonresident Consolidated Income Tax Return.

If an entity filed a PA-40 NRC, Nonresident Consolidated Income Tax Return, on behalf of its qualifying electing nonresident individual owners, the entity is still required to file the PA-20S/PA-65 information return and issue PA-20S/PA-65 Schedules RK-1 and NRK-1 to its owners. Please refer to the instructions for the PA-20S/PA-65 Information Return.

QUALIFYING TO FILE THE PA-40 NRC

The nonresidents of Pennsylvania must meet these requirements:

- The owner must be an individual whose tax year is the calendar year. An estate or a trust may not be included in the filing of the PA-40 NRC, Nonresident Consolidated Income Tax Return, regardless of how the trust is taxed. PA law 72 P.S. §7301 (I) defines individual as “a natural person and shall include the members of a partnership or association and the shareholders of a Pennsylvania S corporation.”
- The owner and the owner’s spouse must each be a domiciliary of a state or country other than Pennsylvania during the calendar year.
- The owner and the owner’s spouse must not maintain a permanent place of abode in Pennsylvania during calendar year.
- The owner must have no other Pennsylvania-taxable income derived from, or connected with Pennsylvania sources other than his or her distributive share of income (loss) for the calendar year. For example: The owner may not have more than one Pennsylvania-source of income.
- The owner must elect to join in the filing of the PA-40 NRC, Nonresident Consolidated Income Tax Return.

WHAT TO FILE

The election to be included in a PA-40 NRC, Nonresident Consolidated Income Tax Return, should be reviewed annually to assure the taxpayer meets the qualifications required for the election, and the entity’s records clearly show all the information required for the current tax year, as listed below. See Maintaining Records – Signed Statements.

The entity must complete PA-40 Schedule NRC-I, Directory of Nonresident Owners (Individuals). List every nonresident individual partner, member, or shareholder (owner) that received a PA-20S/PA-65 Schedule NRK-1 from a PA S corporation, partnership or limited liability filing as an S corporation or partnership for federal income tax purposes.

 NOTE: If an entity filed a PA-40 NRC, Nonresident Consolidated Income Tax Return, on behalf of its qualifying electing nonresident individual owners, the owner(s) do not file the PA-40, Individual Income Tax Return.

 IMPORTANT: The PA-40 NRC, Nonresident Consolidated Income Tax Return, must be filed separately from all other Pennsylvania tax returns.

ASSEMBLING THE PA-40 NRC, NONRESIDENT CONSOLIDATED INCOME TAX RETURN

Assemble the PA-40 NRC, Nonresident Consolidated Income Tax Return, in the following order:

- Signed original PA-40 NRC. Do not mail a photocopy.
- PA-40 Schedule NRC-I.
- PA-20S/PA-65 Schedules NRK-1 for each nonresident individual owner included in the filing of the PA-40 NRC, Nonresident Consolidated Income Tax Return.

 CAUTION: The department will not accept federal Form 1065 or 1120S Schedule K-1 because the federal schedule does not properly reflect the classified Pennsylvania-taxable income amounts. Please do not attach the federal Schedules K-1 to the PA-40 NRC, Nonresident Consolidated Income Tax Return. The PA-20S/PA-65 Schedules NRK-1 submitted to nonresident individuals should reflect Pennsylvania-taxable income to nonresidents.

 IMPORTANT: Do not create a substitute PA-40 NRC, Nonresident Consolidated Income Tax Return, that has not been approved by the department.

A spreadsheet is an unapproved and unacceptable tax form. Unapproved tax forms filed with the department may be rejected and returned to the taxpayer or tax return preparer. This may result in the imposition of interest and penalty. In addition, unapproved tax forms filed with the department may delay the processing of refunds. If you are filing any tax form other than an official tax form, please review Miscellaneous Tax Bulletin 2008-02 on the department's website.

MAINTAINING RECORDS SIGNED STATEMENTS

Every participating nonresident individual owner must make the election to be part of the PA-40 NRC, Nonresident Consolidated Income Tax Return, in writing each year. The elections must be maintained in the entity files. The entity must maintain for inspection at its principal office the following:

- A list of all nonresident owners with all pertinent information for the owners including the names (list by last name in alphabetical order), addresses, Social Security numbers, ownership interests, distributive shares of total taxable income, tax due before application of payments, credits, shares of tax withheld or payments, and shares of overpayment, if any.
- A signed statement from each qualified nonresident individual listed on the PA-40 Schedule NRC-I, Directory of Nonresident Owners (Individuals), evidencing the individual's election to join in filing a Pennsylvania consolidated group return for the taxable year.

 NOTE: The department does not have an official election form. It is the responsibility of the entity to keep the election form it receives from its participating nonresident individual owners as part of the entity's records. Do not submit the election form to the department.

EFFECT OF A CONSOLIDATED RETURN

Unless rejected, the department considers the PA-40 NRC, Nonresident Consolidated Income Tax Return, a return filed on behalf of a group of electing nonresident individuals that meet the individual filing requirements of Pennsylvania personal income tax law.

The department's acceptance of a PA-40 NRC, Nonresident Consolidated Income Tax Return, is conditional upon review to determine that it is a complete return and that all documentation was submitted.

This return is subject to revocation upon audit or review. The department retains the right at any time to require the filing of a PA-40, Individual Income Tax Return, from any of the individual partners or shareholders.

The department also retains the right to withdraw and modify the authority to file a PA-40 NRC, Nonresident Consolidated Income Tax Return.

 IMPORTANT: A participating individual owner may not change the election to file from PA-40 NRC, Nonresident Consolidated Income Tax Return, to a PA-40, Individual Income Tax Return, or vice versa after filing the Pennsylvania tax return.

Any electing nonresident individual owner that discovers other Pennsylvania-source income (loss) is responsible for filing a separate PA-40, Individual Income Tax Return, for such Pennsylvania-source income (loss). However, the nonresident individual owners may lose the benefit of offsetting losses in classes of income where there is income (loss) for the newly discovered Pennsylvania-source income (loss).

WHEN TO FILE

File the current year PA-40 NRC, Nonresident Consolidated Income Tax Return, on or before April 18, 2017, including an extension date of Oct. 16, 2017.

If the due date falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or business holiday, the entity must file its PA-40 NRC, Nonresident Consolidated Income Tax Return, no later than midnight on the first business day following the Saturday, Sunday, or business holiday. The U.S. Postal Service postmark date on the envelope is proof of timely filing. Pennsylvania follows the same tax year as federal rules.

If the return cannot be filed by the original due date, request an extension of time to file. See Extension of Time To File.

If the return is not filed by the original due date or extended due date and the tax due is not paid by the original due date, the department imposes late filing and underpayment penalties.

Calendar-Year Entity

An entity must report all taxable income recognized between Jan. 1 and Dec. 31.

 CAUTION: The PA-40 NRC, Nonresident Consolidated Income Tax Return, cannot be filed on a fiscal year.

Fiscal-Year Entity

A fiscal year is a period of 12 consecutive months without regard to the calendar year. The fiscal year is designated by the calendar year in which it ends. A fiscal-year entity reports all taxable income recognized during the fiscal year.

An entity cannot file the PA-40 NRC, Nonresident Consolidated Income Tax Return, on a fiscal year.

However, fiscal-year entities are allowed to file the PA-40 NRC, Nonresident Consolidated Income Tax Return, on behalf of its nonresident individual owners as long as the nonresident individual qualifies and elects to be included in the filing.

The PA-40 NRC, Nonresident Consolidated Income Tax Return, will be filed for the calendar year in which the fiscal year of the entity ends. See When To File.

Example. ABC Company has a fiscal year from July 1, 2015 until June 30, 2016. ABC Company would file the PA-20S/PA-65 Information Return, on the 2015 form – the beginning year of the entity. ABC Company would file the PA-40 NRC, Nonresident Consolidated Income Tax Return, on the 2016 form – the ending year of the entity. The Schedule NRK-1 for each owner allowed being included on the 2016 PA-40 NRC, Nonresident Consolidated Income Tax Return, verifies the income (loss) earned during ABC Company's fiscal year. The fiscal beginning and ending dates are also reported on Schedule NRK-1.

EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE

If the entity cannot file its PA-40 NRC, Nonresident Consolidated Income Tax Return, on or before the original return due date, the entity must use REV-276, Application for Extension of Time to File, to file for a 6-month extension.

The department will not grant an extension for more than 6 months except for taxpayers outside the U.S.

An extension for the PA-40 NRC, Nonresident Consolidated Income Tax Return, is filed separately from extensions for business returns since nonresident individuals may not file on a fiscal year basis. A federal extension does not grant an extension of time to file the PA-40 NRC, Nonresident Consolidated Income Tax Return.

An extension of time to file the PA-40 NRC, Nonresident Consolidated Income Tax Return, does not extend the filing deadline for any other Pennsylvania tax return. An entity must obtain a separate extension of time to file all other Pennsylvania tax returns.

Qualifying for the Extension

When a PA S corporation or partnership requests an extension of time to file the PA-40 NRC, Nonresident Consolidated Income Tax Return, it extends the filing time for its qualifying electing nonresident owners also.

An extension of time to file a PA-40 NRC, Nonresident Consolidated Income Tax Return, does not extend the time for full payment of the catch-up nonresident withholding tax, nor does it preclude the assessment of penalty and interest for underpayment of tax due. Pay in full the amount reasonably estimated as the catch-up nonresident withholding tax due on or before the original due date.

How To Obtain an Extension of Time to File

1. Properly estimate the entity's current year nonresident withholding tax liability using the information available to you.
2. Enter the entity's tax liability on REV-276.
3. File REV-276 on or before the original return due date of the entity's return along with a check or money order for the current year nonresident withholding tax liability.

File REV-276 in sufficient time before the return due date. The return due date is April 18, 2017 for calendar-year filers and the 15th day of the fourth month following the close of the fiscal year for fiscal-year filers. The department will not send a letter granting the extension however you will receive notification in the event the extension is denied.

Mail Form REV-276 To:

PA DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE
BUREAU OF INDIVIDUAL TAXES
PO BOX 280504
HARRISBURG PA 17128-0504

File a Paper REV-276

A REV-276 can only be filed in paper form. When requesting an extension for the PA-40 NRC, it cannot be filed electronically.

WHEN TO AMEND THE PA-40 NONRESIDENT CONSOLIDATED INCOME TAX RETURN

Over-Reported Income (Refund Claim)

If the entity over reported income, failed to claim allowable credits, failed to report allowable deductions, or events transpired that decreased its reportable Pennsylvania-taxable income, including an IRS Report of Change, the entity must file an amended PA-40 NRC, Nonresident Consolidated Income Tax Return.

The amended return must be filed within three years of the original due date of the PA-40 NRC, Nonresident Consolidated Income Tax Return.

 NOTE: An amended return should not be filed requesting a refund after the statute of limitations for a tax period has expired (three years from the original or extended due date). Additionally you may not file an amended return after the department has issued an assessment for the same taxable issues.

The amended PA-20S/PA-65 Schedules NRK-1 must show the corrected Pennsylvania-taxable income, so the nonresident shareholders or partners can report the correct income on their Pennsylvania tax return.

In order to obtain any refunds, owners must also file an amended Pennsylvania tax return within three years of the original due date of their return.

Under-Reported Income (Tax Due)

If the entity under reported income, erroneously claimed credits or deductions to which it was not entitled, or events transpired that increased reportable Pennsylvania-taxable income, including an IRS Report of Change, the entity must file an amended PA-40 NRC, Nonresident Consolidated Income Tax Return, within 30 days from the determination of such increase. The amended PA-20S/PA-65 Schedules NRK-1 must show the corrected Pennsylvania-taxable income so the nonresident shareholders can report the correct Pennsylvania income on their Pennsylvania tax return.

The entity and owners must also file an amended Pennsylvania tax return within 30 days of the discovery of the error to report any increase in income for taxes due.

HOW TO AMEND THE PA-40 NONRESIDENT CONSOLIDATED INCOME TAX RETURN

If after filing the PA-40 NRC, Nonresident Consolidated Income Tax Return, an entity discovers that an incorrect return has been submitted to the department and/or federal Form 1065 or federal Form 1120S has been amended or if the Internal Revenue Service changes or corrects any item of income, gain or loss previously reported, the entity must submit an amended PA-40 NRC, Nonresident Consolidated Income Tax Return, to the Pennsylvania Department of Revenue.

To amend your original PA-40 NRC, Nonresident Consolidated Income Tax Return, use a tax return form for the tax year that is to be amended and fill in the "Amended Return" oval at the top of the tax return. Do not send a copy of your original return. Complete the return by entering the corrected information and submit it with the amended PA-20S/PA-65 Schedules NRK-1. Clearly mark the "Amended Schedule" oval on PA-20S/PA-65 Schedules NRK-1 and provide a copy to each owner. See Where to File.

 IMPORTANT: If an amended PA-20S/PA-65 Schedule NRK-1 is issued, the original PA-40 NRC, Nonresident Consolidated Income Tax Return, must also be amended to reflect the changes on the PA-20S/PA-65 Schedule NRK-1.
