Petition for a Writ of Habeas Corpus By a Person in State Custody (Petition under 28 U.S.C. § 2254)

Instructions

- 1. To use this form, you must be a person who is or will be serving a sentence under a judgment against you in a state court. You may use this form to ask for relief from the conviction or the sentence if you believe you can prove that you are in custody in violation of the Constitution or laws or treaties of the United States. 28 U.S.C. § 2254(a). If you want to challenge a federal criminal judgment against you, you should file a motion to vacate, set aside or correct sentence, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2255, in the federal court that entered the judgment.
- 2. Please be advised that before this Court will address your § 2254 petition, you must first exhaust your available state court remedies. You can do this in one of two ways. First, if the time for appealing your conviction has not passed, you may directly appeal it to the Virginia Court of Appeals, with further review by the Virginia Supreme Court. In the alternative, you may file a petition for a writ of habeas corpus in the Circuit Court where you were convicted, with further review in the Virginia Supreme Court, or else you may file such a petition directly in the Virginia Supreme Court. Generally, you must receive a ruling on each of your claims from the Supreme Court of Virginia before this court can address your claims in a § 2254 petition.
- 3. The court assesses a $5.00 fee for § 2254 petitions. If the fee is paid, your petition will be filed. If you cannot pay the fee, you may ask to proceed in forma pauperis ("as a poor person"). To do that, you must complete an in forma pauperis affidavit and a certificate, signed by an officer at the institution where you are confined, showing the amount of money in your institutional trust account. If an in forma pauperis affidavit form is not included with the § 2254 form, you may write to the Clerk's Office to request a form.
- 4. To ensure that your claims are given full consideration, your responses on the § 2254 form must be typed or neatly written in the space provided, on one side of the paper only, with one-inch margins on all sides of the text. Carbon copies are not acceptable.
- 5. Answer all the questions. You do not need to cite any law. You may submit additional pages if you need more space for your answers. You may also submit a separate memorandum explaining your claims. Be sure these separate documents comply with the format explained in Paragraph 4.
- 6. You must tell the truth and sign and date the § 2254 petition under penalty of perjury. If you make a false statement of a material fact, you may be prosecuted for perjury. Please note that photocopied or carbon copy signatures are not acceptable.
- 7. You need only send the original petition to the court. If you want a file-stamped copy of the petition, you must enclose an additional copy of the petition and ask the court to file-stamp it and return it to you.
- 8. When you have completed the § 2254 petition, send the original form along with any attachments to the Clerk's Office at the following address:

Clerk's Office, United States District Court for the Western District of Virginia 210 Franklin Road, SW, Suite 540 Roanoke VA 24011-2208

- 9. CAUTION: You must include in this petition all the grounds for relief from the conviction or sentence that you challenge. And you must state the facts that support each ground. If you fail to set forth all the grounds in this petition, you may be barred from presenting additional grounds at a later date.
- 10. CAPITAL CASES: If you are under a sentence of death, you are entitled to the assistance of counsel and should request the appointment of counsel.
