

The Purgarelli Nursing Student Scholarship

The Purgarelli Nursing Student Scholarship is to be awarded to a rising junior or senior nursing student from the Southside and Central Virginia (preferred) region with financial need. The nursing student must demonstrate commitment to the mission of Longwood University and the Department of Nursing demonstrating citizen leadership.

The following elements and appropriate documentation must be submitted in full to be eligible for committee review:

- The applicant should be from the Southside and Central Virginia region (preferred)
- The applicant is required to submit a current unofficial academic transcript.
- The applicant is required to provide a response to the given essay question in formal APA style.
- Student is required to pledge their work in accordance with Longwood University Honor Pledge requirements
- The application, including unofficial transcript, must be in a signed and sealed envelope addressed to:
Longwood University Department of Nursing
Attn: Rena Reynolds - Purgarelli Scholarship
Stevens Hall Suite 200
Farmville, VA 23909
- Deadline for submission is February 1st by 5pm

If any of the above elements are missing, it will result in the disqualification of the applicant.

The Purgarelli Nursing Student Scholarship

Name: _____ Date: _____
Last M. I. First

Phone: _____

Campus
Address: _____

Home
Address: _____

Email
Address: _____

Major: _____

Minor (if applicable): _____

Grade Point Average: _____

Anticipated Graduation Date: _____

Essay:

How has your financial need impacted your educational experiences, clinically and academically, at Longwood University?