“Encounter with Silence”

Guided Silent Retreat for Men & Women, Ordained & Lay

July 16-23, 2017

Truth must bear fruit in love, and love must proceed from truth. These words of the late Father John J. Hugo crystallize the completeness of Christianity that the Encounter with Silence memorably conveys. Thousands of lay and religious people have made the Lacouture-Hugo retreat (now called Encounter with Silence) over the past 75 years. The Retreat became a marker of profound change for them; six days of silence in which to realize the love of Christ and the demands of His Gospel.

The late French-Canadian Jesuit Father Onesimus Lacouture gave the first Retreat to priests in 1931. Father Hugo began to give it to the laity soon after. Father John Mary Tompkins, OSB currently carries on that tradition. Perhaps the most famous lover of the Retreat is the Servant of God, Dorothy Day. She made the retreat over 20 times and wrote of it in her books.

The retreat creates a spiritual hothouse of strict silence, profound prayer, and Holy Mass. It then plants the seed of conversion by showing that Christ's teaching must radically change our lives, and especially our mentality: Christianity demands more than respectability and natural virtue. Christians are called to holiness and perfection. It boldly challenges the purely human thinking of our times with divine truth. It converts the already Christianized.

Join us in Holy Silence at Loyola Retreat House and be transformed so that the Church and Her saints can transform the world.
