

Evening Reading Log

Name: _____

Practice makes progress! Your child needs to read every night. They can read a picture book or part of a chapter book. Please record your child's reading every evening to teach the importance of practicing reading. Your child will need to complete a weekly reading response (on the backside). This entire page will be collected on Mondays.

Monday ____/____/____

Title: _____

Circle one: I read alone I read with someone

Minutes: _____ Pages: _____ Parent Initials: _____

Tuesday ____/____/____

Title: _____

Circle one: I read alone I read with someone

Minutes: _____ Pages: _____ Parent Initials: _____

Wednesday ____/____/____

Title: _____

Circle one: I read alone I read with someone

Minutes: _____ Pages: _____ Parent Initials: _____

Thursday ____/____/____

Title: _____

Circle one: I read alone I read with someone

Minutes: _____ Pages: _____ Parent Initials: _____

Friday ____/____/____

Title: _____

Circle one: I read alone I read with someone

Minutes: _____ Pages: _____ Parent Initials: _____

Reading Response Journal

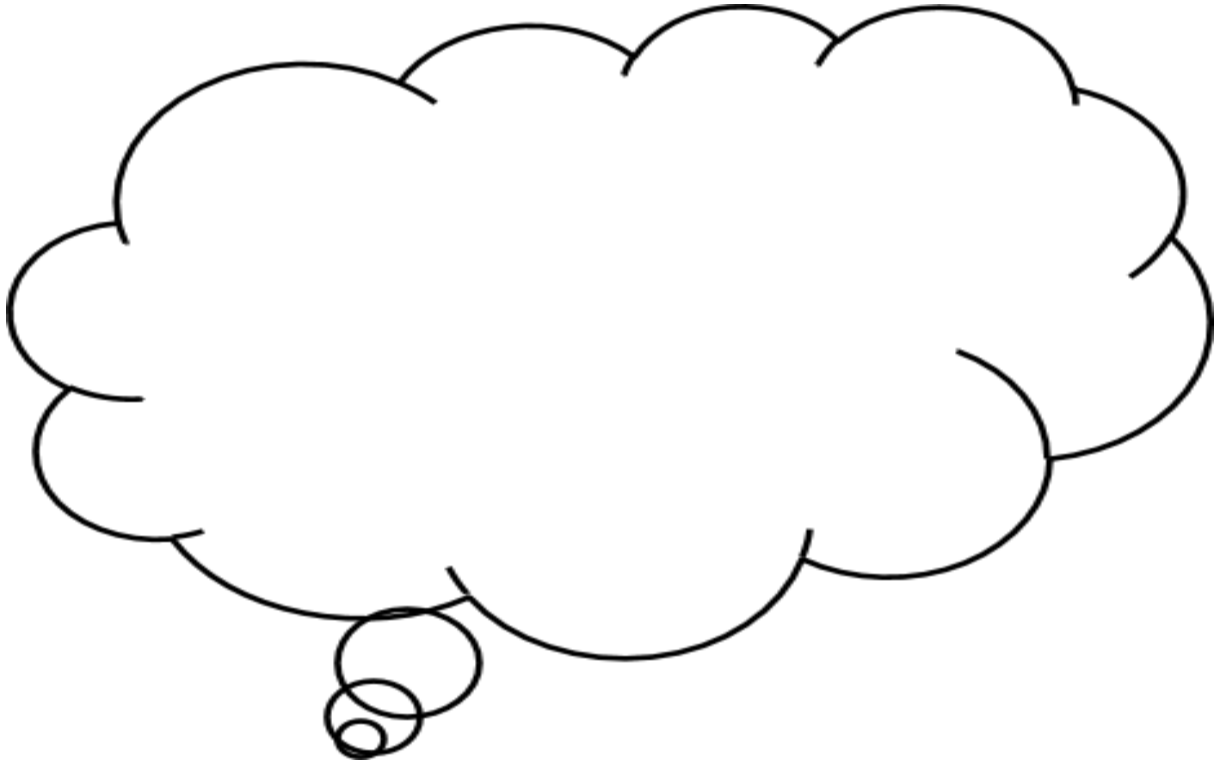

Name: _____ Date: _____

Title: _____

Author: _____ Pages _____ to _____

Envision:

Illustrate the mental movie you made in your mind, included the characters, setting, events, and characters' reactions to them.

Retell/Summarize: Briefly summarize the story so far. Include characters and important events. Write about the characters traits and wants.

This part of the text is about _____
