Conference Mission

Educational justice remains the most significant Civil Right that has not been provided to all African student and Families, It is essential that a formal Black Educational Civil Rights Agenda be established, accepted, implemented and supported with adequate recourses and support by all stakeholders who recognize the fundamental right of all United States citizens to a free and proper education. It is also essential to recognize that our entire society is a risk if a significant group of American remains consistently undereducated

Metropolitan Alliance of Black School Educators (MBABSE)

Is an affiliate of the National Alliance of Black School Educators (NABSE) which is the nation's premiere non-profit organization devoted to furthering the academic success of all children particularly children of African descent. Founded in 1970, NABSE IS dedicated to improving both the educational experiences and accomplishments of African American youth through the development and use of instructional and motivational methods that increase levels of inspiration, attendance and overall achievement.

Dr. Aaron Podolefsky,
President Buffalo State College

Incoming President of Buffalo State College, Dr. Podolefsky is known as a successful higher education leader with strategic planning know-how and proven knack for cultivating campus-community partnerships and economic development. He was the overwhelming choice of the Buffalo State College Presidential Search Advisor Committee and College Council.

Dr. Podolefsky embraces the importance of so many vital missions and values, including education, research, service learning, accessibility and diversity.

Dr. Folasade Oladele,
Deputy Superintendent

On July 1, 2009, Dr. Oladele was appointed Deputy Superintendent for the Buffalo Public Schools. Dr. Oladele is an award winning scholar in the area of literacy receiving the Harriet Tubman Outstanding Leadership Award and was recognized by the Marcus Foster Institute as the "Most Outstanding Educator" in the Oakland Unified School District for her effectiveness as an instructional leader.

Mr. Baruti Kafele,
Author & Motivational Speaker

Milken National Educator, national best-selling author and nationally renowned motivator, Principal Kafele is on fire! He's on a personal mission to motivate, educate and empower educators, parents and children toward the elimination of the "attitude gap" the world over. He brings an empowering message of "attitude transformation" in these times of drop-out rates, suspensions and low academic performance. His message is inspiring, thought provoking and candid.
