

Scott Ernst

Vice President
Wells Fargo Insurance USA, Inc.
Wells Fargo & Company

Scott Ernst is a vice president and team member of the Insurance Brokerage and Consulting for Wells Fargo Insurance.

Scott has over 25 years of experience in the commercial insurance business and for the last 15 years has focused on the advancing risks of the technology service and product companies as well as the evolving areas of network security and privacy risk management and insurance.

Scott benefits from broad overall insurance experience with a specialization in technology-related exposures, including network security and privacy risks, technology errors & omissions, data and systems failure protection, technology-related business interruption risks, intellectual property risks, directors & officers liability, and M&A-related risks.

Prior to joining Wells Fargo, Scott was with Willis for 8 years as Senior Vice President in Willis' commercial insurance solutions practice. Previously Scott had founded InsureCast, a specialty technology risk brokerage, in 1999.

Scott is a speaker on technology and liability topics and has presented to the Professional Liability Underwriting Society (PLUS), the New York State Bar Association, the New Jersey State Bar Association, and the New Jersey Insurance Coverage Institute and RIMS, The Risk Management Society.

In the past Mr. Ernst served as Chairman of the Professional Liability Underwriting Society. Scott received his BBA degree from The University of Michigan Steven M. Ross School of Business.

Together we'll go far

Products and services are offered through Wells Fargo Insurance Services USA, Inc., and Wells Fargo Insurance Services of West Virginia, Inc., nonbank insurance agency affiliates of Wells Fargo & Company.

Products and services are underwritten by unaffiliated insurance companies, except crop and flood insurance which may be underwritten by their affiliate, Rural Community Insurance Company. Some services may require additional fees and may be offered directly through third party providers. Banking and insurance decisions are made independently and do not influence each other.
