Furthermore, you will not permit or cause any person whose licence is under suspension to operate the vehicle. The operation of the vehicle by a person whose driver's licence is under suspension shall constitute a default under this Lease and we may repossess the vehicle in addition to taking such other actions as we may elect under this Lease. You agree to reimburse us for all damages (including all costs and expenses) incurred by us as a result of you or another person operating the vehicle with a suspended driver's licence.

"Clauses required under the Consumer Protection Act. (Long-term contract of lease)

The consumer has no right of ownership in the goods leased.

The merchant shall assume the risk of loss or deterioration by fortuitous event of the goods forming the object of this contract except where the consumer withholds the goods without right or, where such is the case, after ownership of the goods has been transferred to him by the merchant.

The consumer benefits from the same warranties respecting the leased goods as a consumer owning such goods.

Where the consumer is in default to perform his obligation in the manner prescribed in this contract, the merchant may:

- a) either exact immediate payment of that which is due;
- b) or retake possession of the goods forming the object of the contract.

Before retaking possession of the goods, the merchant must give the consumer a notice in writing of thirty (30) days, during which time the consumer may, as he chooses:

- a) remedy the fact that he is in default;
- b) return the goods to the merchant.

The consumer may also return the goods to the merchant at any time during the leasing period even if he has not received a notice of repossession.

If the consumer returns the goods to the merchant, the contract is rescinded of right. In such a case, the merchant is not bound to return to the consumer the amount of the payments due he has already received, and he cannot claim any damages other than those actually resulting, directly and immediately, from the rescission of the contract. The merchant is bound to minimize his damages.

(Insurance)

Before entering into this contract, the merchant requires the consumer to hold a comprehensive automobile insurance policy.

A consumer may meet that requirement:

- a) either by subscribing to an insurance policy with an insurer recommended to him by the merchant;
- b) or by subscribing to an insurance policy equivalent to that required by the merchant with an insurer chosen by the consumer;
- c) or with an insurance policy he already holds.

It is in the consumer's interest to refer to sections 111, 112, 116, 150.10, 150.11 and 150.13 to 150.17 of the Consumer Protection Act (R.S.Q., c. P-40.1) and, where necessary, to communicate with the Office de la protection du consommateur."

29. FORFEITURE OF BENEFIT OF THE TERM

If you are in default of any obligation under this Lease, such as the payment of Monthly Payments when due, we may claim from you all overdue Monthly Payments as well as all the Monthly Payments not yet due under this Lease, plus the value of the Option to Purchase as set out in Section 6 of this Lease, after having sent the appropriate notice as required by law.

"Clause required under the Consumer Protection Act.

(Contract other than a contract of credit that contains a clause of forfeiture of benefit of the term)

Before availing himself of this clause, the merchant must forward the consumer a notice in writing and a statement of account.

Within thirty (30) days following the receipt by the consumer of the notice and the statement of account, the consumer may:

- a) either remedy the fact that he is in default;
- b) or present a motion to the court to have the terms and conditions of payment prescribed in this contract changed;
- c) or present a motion to the court to obtain permission to return the goods forming the object of this contract to the merchant.

If the consumer returns the goods to the merchant with the permission of the court, his obligation under this contract is extinguished and the merchant is not bound to return to him the payments he has received from him.

It is in the consumer's interest to refer to sections 14, 104 to 110 of the Consumer Protection Act (R.S.Q., c. P-40.1) and, where necessary, to communicate with the Office de la protection du consommateur."
