COALITION FOR
COMPASSIONATE CARE
OF CALIFORNIA

CREATING A CULTURE OF COMPASSION

A conference for everyone interested in improving care for people with an advanced or terminal illness, including physicians, nurses, social workers, administrators, attorneys, consumer advocates, and public policy makers.

Conference Program

Fitting End of Life into the National Healthcare Agenda

Myra Christopher, Center for Practical Bioethics, Kansas City, MO
Myra Christopher, Founding President and CEO of the Center for Practical Bioethics and nationally recognized voice in aging and end-of-life care, connects healthcare reform to advanced illness, palliative care and advance care planning.

Taking Time to Listen: Important Lessons from Special Populations

Fay Blix, Esq., Elder Law Attorney
Theresa Drought, PhD, RN, Kaiser Woodland Hills Medical Center
Elaine Lewis, Developmental Services Continuum, Inc.
Gina Mohr, MD, Loma Linda University Medical Center
Communicating about end-of-life issues with pediatric patients, people with Alzheimer's, and people with developmental disabilities requires special skills. Hear from this panel of experts about what you can learn from these special populations and their families – if we take the time.

2012 Compassionate Care Leadership Awards

Presentation of the 1st Annual Compassionate Care Leadership Awards.

CCCC: Making a Difference

Judy Citko, JD, Coalition for Compassionate Care of California

Redefining Advance Care Planning: Engaging Surrogates in a Brand New Way

Rebecca Sudore, MD, UC San Francisco
Is your surrogate decision-maker prepared? How much flexibility do we give our surrogates? Dr. Rebecca Sudore outlines practical steps to help people prepare for making the best possible in-the-moment medical decisions.

POLST: Making It Work in the Real World

POLST by the Numbers

Catherine Russell McGregor, RN, MSN, FNS-C, Sutter Health Sacramento/Sierra Region
Neil Wenger, MD, UC Los Angeles
Is POLST working in the real world? Where is it working? Where is it breaking down? POLST implementation is an evolving process. See what the data shows about California's progress.

POLST in Action

David English, MD, Ethics Committee of Alameda County Medical Center
Kate O'Malley, RN, MS, FNP, California HealthCare Foundation
Paul Schneider, MD, Greater Los Angeles VA Healthcare System
Karl Steinberg, MD, Scripps Coastal Medical Center
Steve Lai, MD, Palo Alto Medical Foundation
What are the tips and tricks to using POLST successfully? Hear from a panel of experts about the best practices they employ to implement POLST across the healthcare continuum.

This Is Not Your Grandfather's Death

Steve Pantilat, MD, UC San Francisco
What does end-of-life and palliative care look like in California? Dr. Steve Pantilat reports on hospital-based palliative care and a recent survey on Californians' end-of-life experiences and attitudes.

PARTNERS IN POLST: HONORING PATIENT WISHES ACROSS CARE SETTINGS

Join end-of-life and palliative care leaders from across the country who are advancing the POLST Paradigm to translate patient wishes into medical orders that are honored across care settings. Learn innovative strategies for implementing POLST in your state or region.

Conference Program

Where We've Been, Where We Are & Where We're Going

Susan Tolle*, MD (OR), Center for Ethics in Health Care, Oregon Health Sciences University
Dr. Tolle, one of the founders of Oregon's POLST Paradigm Program and recognized national POLST leader, will provide an overview of endorsed POLST programs across the U.S., as well as outline some of the barriers and lessons learned from mature POLST states. She will also address how to become an endorsed POLST Paradigm state, and the future sustainability of the national POLST movement.

Research Findings and Evaluation of POLST

Judith Black*, MD (PA)
Erik Fromme, MD (OR), Oregon Health Sciences University
Bernard (Bud) Hammes*, PhD (WI), Gunderson Lutheran Medical Foundation
Naomi Karp, JD (DC), Consumer and State Affairs Team - AARP's Public Policy Institute
Catherine Russell McGregor, RN, MSN, FNS-C (CA), POLST Quality Improvement Coordinator
Charles Sabatino*, JD (DC), ABA Commission on Law and Aging
Neil Wenger, MD (CA), POLST Evaluation Team
Researchers across the country are examining the POLST Paradigm. Hear from this panel of evaluation experts about recent research highlights, including AARP's report detailing POLST efforts in 12 states, data from Oregon's POLST registry, POLST quality and implementation data being collected in California, and data from Wisconsin comparing the consistency of POLST and advance directives.

POLST across the Continuum

Margaret Carley*, JD, RN (OR), Center for Ethics in Health Care, Oregon Health Sciences University
Alvin (Woody) Moss*, MD (WV), Center for Health Ethics and Law, West Virginia University
Terri Schmidt*, MD (OR), Oregon Health Sciences University
Kenneth Zeri*, RN, MS (HI), Hospice Hawaii
Paul Schneider, MD (CA), Greater Los Angeles VA Healthcare System
POLST is an interdisciplinary tool, and one that travels with patients across care settings. A presentation of case studies demonstrates the importance of collaboration and coordination between emergency medical services, skilled nursing facilities, acute care hospitals and hospices.

Lunchtime Regional POLST Discussions

Judy Eads* (TN)
David Koets*, MD (CO)
Dee Leahman* (NC)
Cheryl Simpson-Whitaker* (ID)
Join others from your geographic region to discuss and share POLST successes and challenges, including recognizing POLST forms across state borders.

Modeling the POLST Conversation

Linda Briggs MS, MA, RN (WI), Gundersen Lutheran Medical Foundation
Jim Mittelberger, MD, MPH (CA), POLST Physician Champion
A POLST form is only as good as the conversation on which it is based. Two POLST experts model effective conversation techniques during a live demonstration of a POLST conversation that takes place over time.

POLST Education & Resources

Judy Citko*, JD, Coalition for Compassionate Care of California
 Looking for POLST educational materials and resources that are already available? Don't want to reinvent the wheel? Learn about educational efforts and tools that have been used successfully with both healthcare providers and consumers.

POLST Networking

Attendees will have an opportunity to visit displays from all endorsed POLST Paradigm states and meet one-on-one with representatives from those states.

Breakout Sessions – Choose One Session to Attend

1. The POLST Conversation

Chris Evans, RN, MSN (CA), CA POLST Education Program
 Joanne Hatchett, RN, MSN, NP (CA), CA POLST Education Program

SPEAKER HIGHLIGHTS

Myra Christopher

Myra Christopher is the Founding President and CEO of the Center for Practical Bioethics. In addition to providing oversight to the Center from 1998-2003, Ms. Christopher served as the national program officer of the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation's National Program Office for State-Based Initiatives to Improve End-of Life Care. In 2011, she was named the Kathleen M. Foley Chair in Pain and Palliative Care at the Center.

CREATING A CULTURE OF COMPASSION

Rebecca Sudore, MD

Dr. Rebecca Sudore is a geriatrician, a hospice and palliative care physician, and an assistant professor of medicine at the University of California, San Francisco and the San Francisco VA Medical Center. Her research focuses on the intersection of limited health literacy, geriatrics, advance care planning, and medical decision making. She has published work demonstrating the effect of limited health literacy on mortality in the elderly and on impaired decision making for informed consent and advance care planning.

Steve Pantilat, MD

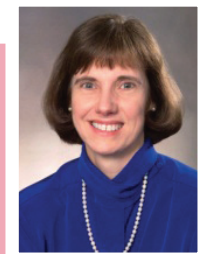

Dr. Steve Pantilat is a professor of medicine at the University of California, San Francisco, the Alan M. Kates and John M. Burnard Endowed Chair in Palliative Care, and the founding Director of the UCSF Palliative Care Program. He is the Director of the UCSF Palliative Care Leadership Center that trains teams from hospitals across the country how to establish Palliative Care services, and the Director of the UCSF Fellowship in Hospice and Palliative Medicine. Dr. Pantilat is a 2011 recipient of the James Irvine Foundation Leadership Award.

Susan Tolle, MD

Treasurer, National POLST Paradigm Task Force

Dr. Susan Tolle founded and directed the Oregon Health Sciences University Center for Ethics in Health Care since 1989. She has shepherded its growth into an internationally recognized ethics center with programs such as the Physician Orders for Life-Sustaining Treatment (POLST) program and more recently the Oregon POLST Registry. Dr. Tolle is a Professor of Medicine and she holds the Cornelia Hayes Stevens Endowed Chair in Health Care Ethics.

Bernard Hammes, PhD

Chair, National POLST Paradigm Task Force

Since 1984, Dr. Bernard (Bud) Hammes has served as the Director of Medical Humanities and Respecting Choices® for the Gunderson Lutheran Medical Foundation and the Gunderson Lutheran Medical Center in La Crosse, Wisconsin.

He is a professor of clinical science at the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse and an associate adjunct professor of the Institute for Health and Society at the Medical College of Wisconsin.

LOCATION

With world famous attractions and 70 miles of beaches, San Diego has so much to offer. Discover some of San Diego's history by visiting Old Town, Cabrillo National Monument, Gaslamp Quarter, Balboa Park or one of the region's many missions. And don't stop there. Enjoy a roller coaster ride, numerous entertainment centers or a day at a water park. The adventurer will love sky sailing or a bi-plane ride. For those with more refined tastes, discover lush botanical gardens and beautiful wineries.

The Catamaran Resort Hotel & Spa is on the northwest shore of Mission Bay, the world's largest aquatic park. The enticing waves of the Pacific Ocean are just 100 yards away. The resort's 313 rooms and suites are spacious and tastefully appointed with their own balcony or patio. Enjoy marvelous views of the California coastline or stunning city skyline from every part of our beach resort. The resort is within easy walking and driving distance of all San Diego's major attractions. For larger excursions, visit SeaWorld or Belmont Park. For milder recreational fare, head to Mission Bay Park's bike and walk paths.
