INDIANA UNIVERSITY-PURDUE UNIVERSITY FORT WAYNE

IPFW at a glance

Born separately, decades apart, and conjoined in 1964 along the banks of the St. Joseph River, Indiana University-Purdue University Fort Wayne offers an outstanding education at a great value. As northeastern Indiana's premier public university, IPFW is committed to enhancing access to personalized, high-quality learning. The university offers more than 180 degree options for undergraduate and graduate programs, taught by distinguished professors. It's not unusual to turn on a television documentary and see a member of IPFW's faculty as the "resident expert" on topics ranging from dinosaurs to Middle East politics.

The university offers more than 180 degree options for undergraduate and graduate programs.

IPFW continues to grow, both in numbers of students and in facilities. Spring 2002 total student enrollment was 10,625, an 8 percent increase from spring 2001. The addition of more than a dozen new soccer fields across the St. Joseph River from the main campus has greatly increased athletic opportunities for students as well as for members of the community. Plans for a new music building are in the works, and fundraising efforts have already begun. IPFW opened student housing in 2004.

IPFW's academic organization is made up of 10 major units, which include the schools of Business and Management Sciences; Education; Health Sciences; Arts and Sciences; Engineering, Technology, and Computer Science; and Visual and Performing Arts. It also includes the divisions of Continuing Studies, Labor Studies, Public and Environmental Affairs, and Organizational Leadership and Supervision.

There are dozens of student organizations on IPFW's campus. Groups range from departmental organizations, honorary societies, religious organizations, social Greek fraternities and sororities, and special interest groups. There are also several intramural sports groups.

IPFW receives its accreditation from the Commission on Institutions of Higher Education of the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools.

Locker and Training Rooms and Hosts

Each team will be assigned a locker room and a host for your game at IPFW. Your host will show you the location of the locker and training rooms, which are on the ground floor of the Hilliard Gates Sports Center. Your host will have a key to your locker room and will sit behind your bench. If you need anything during your visit, please let your host know.

Each team will be assigned a locker room. The locker rooms will be stocked with water, cups, and ice. Bench towels will be available on your team bench at the start of warm-ups. If you need any additional items, please contact the athletics office 48 hours prior to your game.

Each team will use the training room for taping and pre-game therapy. No taping supplies or tables will be available in the locker rooms. The athletics training staff encourages each team to bring taping supplies. If you are not traveling with a trainer, please contact the training room at the number above to make arrangements for taping and pre-game physical therapy.

History of Fort Wayne

Fort Wayne began as an outpost on the western frontier more than 200 years ago. It gained its nickname, the "Summit City," by being the highest place between the Maumee and Wabash river basins.

Now with a population in excess of 200,000 people, it is the second largest city in Indiana. As such, it offers its citizenry a wide variety of things to do, see, and appreciate. For the sports minded, there are two professional sports teams based here: the United Hockey League's Fort Wayne Komets and the Midwest League for Single A Baseball's Fort Wayne Wizards, whose parent club is the San Diego Padres. Fort Wayne holds several places in sports history. It is the birthplace of the National Basketball Association and the home of the Daisy's, one of five teams in the first professional women's baseball league. Fort Wayne also has the honor of holding the first night baseball game under lights.

...with a population in excess of 200,000 people, it is the second largest city in Indiana.

For those who are interested in the performing arts, the Summit City offers venues such as the Fort Wayne Philharmonic, Fort Wayne Ballet, the Civic Theatre, Artlink, Fort Wayne Dance Collective, and Fort Wayne Youtheatre.

Some little known trivia about Fort Wayne: the inventor of the television Philo T. Farnsworth was born here, as was fashion designer Bill Blass. Fort Wayne is the home of the washing machine, baking powder, parking meters, magnetic wire, streetlights, and gas pumps.

Arenas

Athletic Facilities at IPFW

Hilliard Gates Sports Center
 Named in honor of longtime area sportscaster Hilliard Gates, the 68,106 square foot, tri-level facility is located on the northeast end of the IPFW campus. It is home to the IPFW Mastodon athletic programs, which compete in NCAA Division I. The facility features a multipurpose gymnasium with a 2,700-seat arena and three basketball/volleyball courts, a 1/9-mile indoor track built of a tartan rubber surface, five racquetball/handball courts, and the fitness center.

The fitness center includes state-of-the-art Life Fitness bikes; Life Fitness treadmills, which have heart-rate monitors; elliptical EFX Cross Trainers; Stairmasters; Concept II rowing machines; and Airowdyne bikes.

Another facility highlight is the strength and conditioning room, which features a complete 15-piece Nautilus set and a spacious matted area for free weight training. An attached wooden floor with mirrored walls is the meeting location of a wide variety of aerobics and dance classes. Personal training, fitness counseling, and nutrition consulting are available. Schedule an appointment at the customer service desk.

IPFW child care is available to sports center members. For more information, call 260-482-3719. For more information about the IPFW Fitness Center, or IPFW athletics, call 260-481-6655 or 260-481-6647.

Outdoor Sports Complex

The outdoor sports complex is comprised of baseball, softball, and soccer fields. Teams compete on groomed and newly irrigated playing fields on the northeast side of campus across the street from the Gates Sports Center.

Tennis Courts

Built in 1999, the tennis teams play on six well-maintained and lighted tennis courts. The tennis courts are located just north of the outdoor sports complex. Hours for the tennis courts are from dawn to 11 p.m. The lights are activated with a geocentric timer so the lights come on at sunset or may be overridden by the physical plant or coach's key.

Hefner Fields

The IPFW Hefner Soccer Fields are made up of 14 full-sized soccer fields. Located across the river from IPFW on California Road, Hefner Soccer Fields host numerous state soccer tournaments as well as the IPFW Soccer Showcase. The fields are located west of the IPFW campus, across the St. Joe River. From US 30 East, the soccer fields are located just over the St. Joe Bridge behind Carrington Baseball Field. From US 30 West, Hefner Soccer Fields are located just before the St. Joe Bridge, immediately past Wizards' Baseball Stadium, behind Carrington Baseball Field. For more information see Web site <http://www.ipfw.edu/>

Memorial Coliseum

The Allen County War Memorial Coliseum is a 13,000-seat arena that hosts many national events and concerts. The arena is a second venue for athletics for all men's basketball games and larger volleyball matches as well as NCAA Championship events. The home arena for the Fort Wayne Komets Hockey Club, the Memorial Coliseum is a perfect venue for some of the most spectacular ice shows in the country. With full-service catering and many luxurious rooms, the Memorial Coliseum is a perfect place for luncheons, meetings, conventions, dinners, and receptions. For more information, call 260-482-9502 or visit the Web site at www.memorialcoliseum.com. For ticket information for IPFW events at the Memorial Coliseum, call 260-483-1111. For driving directions, see the map on the Web at <http://www.memorialcoliseum.com/gettomc.htm>.
