Registrations must be submitted at the same time.

Whether you are a general practitioner, corporate counsel or a lawyer practising primarily business law, this two-hour program will help you negotiate and draft partnership agreements that are tailored to the specific needs of your clients.

Speakers will also explore associated conflicts and other practice issues, including — joint retainers from more than one partner and circumstances where independent legal advice is recommended.

Using an annotated sample general partnership agreement as the framework, our faculty of experienced corporate and tax practitioners will share their drafting and practice insights.

To add value to this practical program, each registrant will receive the following reference tools:

- annotated partnership agreement (including language alternatives, practice tips, case law citations, and statute citations)
- a CD-ROM containing an unannotated version of the partnership agreement.

Program Fee: $195 + $13.65 GST = $208.65
