Dear Campers and Parents,
The Franklin HS Basketball program would like to invite you to a week filled with basketball, fun, and friends. The camp is run by Daryn Plummer, Boys Basketball Head Coach.

“It is our goal to help each and every player become better at the game of basketball. We look forward to meeting and working with you at our upcoming camp.”

Sincerely,
The Franklin High School Coaching Staff

Coach Plummer has coached on the staff at Franklin for four years, last year being his first as varsity head coach. Coach

Plummer has trained athletes on every level from middle school through college. Coach Plummer is an alumni of FHS (*97), during which time he won state titles as a captain of the varsity basketball and football teams. Coach Plummer went on to play basketball and football at Wagner College where he earned All-American honors.

WHAT DO I NEED?
Campers should come prepared with shorts, a t-shirt, basketball sneakers, and a lunch. A concession stand will be available for pizza, snacks, and drinks so bring some extra money.

- HIGHLIGHTS OF CAMP:
- Individualized instruction for players of all levels and experience
 - Players grouped by age and ability
 - Individual evaluations
 - Fun, skill, and competitive games
 - Chance to meet and work with the FHS Varsity Staff and All-State Basketball Counselors
