WHAT CLAIMS CAN I MAKE ABOUT MY APPROVED PRODUCTS?

1. INTRODUCTION.

Approval holders frequently ask what claims can be made about the status of their approved product and/or can they use the DWI logo on their advertising literature.

2. WHO GIVES APPROVAL.

Approval letters make it clear that approval is given by the Secretary of State. The Drinking Water Inspectorate advises the Secretary of State on approval issues.

The Inspectorate does not approve products and approval holders shall not refer to “DWI approval” or use the DWI logo in advertising material.

The Inspectorate is aware of a number of instances of misleading claims and unauthorised use of its logo. A number of approval holders have been asked to take immediate action to withdraw advertising material referring to DWI approval.

3. WHAT CAN APPROVAL HOLDERS CLAIM?

Acceptable claims include “approved by the Secretary of State”, “approved under regulation 31 of the Water Supply (Water Quality) Regulations 2000” [previously Regulation 25 of the 1989 Regulations], or “approved for use in public water supplies”. Approval holders may also refer to the inclusion of their product in the Secretary of State’s List of Approved Products. The full title of the List is “List of Approved Products and Processes”. Approval holders may also wish to refer to the location of the list on the Inspectorate’s website (<http://www.dwi.gov.uk/31/approvedproducts/soslist.shtm>).

It is acceptable for you to photocopy and supply a copy of your approval letter in response to an enquiry from a prospective purchaser.
