 Proceed to the next page and use that page over and over again, one page for each room that is to be included. Attics, crawlspaces,, and basements, do on their own pages also. Drawings of rooms should include closets. Hallways and entry need included in other drawings or by themselves. If you can't provide drawings, include at least the room dimensions, or the square footage of every activity.

Use the form as much as possible and write anywhere you can for additional information. The form includes most frequently used items, but anything can be added, anything.
