

Orphan's/Unsupported Child's Benefit application form

Work and Income
Te Hiranga Tangata

A service of the Ministry of Social Development

If you need more information go to our website www.workandincome.govt.nz or call us on 0800 559 009.

We suggest that you read the instructions on pages 1 to 4 of this application form before starting to fill it out, so you get a feel for what is needed.

Support we can give you

If you are raising someone else's child, we may be able to help in a small way by meeting some of the costs involved.

The Orphan's Benefit is for people looking after someone else's child because their parents have died or can't be found, or when they can't look after their child because the parent has a long-term illness.

The Unsupported Child's Benefit is for people looking after someone else's child because the child's parents can't support them due to a family breakdown.

The child you are looking after must be:

- aged under 18 years and
- single and
- financially dependent on you.

You must:

- be aged 18 years or older, and the main caregiver of the child and
- expect to care for the child for 12 months or more and
- not be the child's natural or adoptive parent or the step-parent if you are applying for the Unsupported Child's Benefit.

Both you and the child must also normally live in New Zealand.

You must give us all the information we need.

If you do not have all the information we need, talk with us and we may be able to help.

If we find out later that any information you give us is not true, or that you knew information you should have told us and did not tell us, we may stop paying your benefit. You might need to pay money back, we may impose a penalty, and you could be prosecuted.

What you will find in this application form

This application form is made up of:

- an applicant form – this is for you to fill out (pages 5 to 10)
- a form to fill in if the child is an orphan (pages 11 to 14)
- a form to fill in for an unsupported child (pages 15 to 19)
- Obligations - this lists the obligations you agree to in return for getting payments and what will happen if you do not meet these (page 20)
- Privacy Statement – this is what we do with the information you give us (page 21)
- a signature page – where you agree to meet your conditions for receiving this benefit (pages 22 and 23)
- Helper’s statement – to be completed if someone has filled in the application form on behalf of you or your partner if you have one (page 22).

How to fill in this application form

Tick the small square boxes. For example, if your answer to a question is ‘Yes’, tick the box next to the word ‘Yes’.

No Yes

Write in the longer boxes. If you do not have enough room to write the answer to a question, use another piece of paper and attach it to the form.

Often this form tells you what to do next

If you see

 Information about a question.

 How to answer a question.

If you have someone fill in this application form for you, that person must fill in and sign the Helper’s statement on page 22.

The better the information you give us, the sooner we can process your application. So, please fill out the application form carefully, and bring all the documents you need to your meeting.

Orphan's/Unsupported Child's Benefit

what to bring

Once you have filled out the application form, use this checklist to tick off all the documents you need for your meeting with us.

Talk to us if you do not have any of the documents, have given them to us recently or if there might be a delay in getting them.

What you need to bring

INFORMATION NOTE:
Documents need to be originals, or copies of documents that have been certified as a true copy by a Solicitor/Lawyer, Notary Public, Registrar of the Court or Justice of the Peace.

Proof of who you are:

If you were born in New Zealand, bring one type of official identification that has your full legal name and your date of birth (for example, your birth certificate, passport, driver licence, firearms licence, deed poll).

If you were born overseas, bring proof that you have a right to live in New Zealand (for example, a citizenship certificate, a New Zealand passport, a passport from another country with residence class visa or proof of permanent residence).

If your name has changed, bring your marriage certificate, deed poll, or other proof of the name change.

All people applying need to bring two more documents that help to prove who you are (for example, a marriage certificate, bank statement, phone or power account, driver licence).

A form or letter from Inland Revenue showing your tax number.

Proof of your bank account details, such as a bank statement or deposit slip.

One of the documents you bring must be at least two years old.

What you need to bring
for the child

Proof of who the child is:

Full birth certificate for the child that you are raising

Proof of any income for the child - this may be income that both you or the child receives

For Orphan's Benefit you also need to bring:

Death certificate(s) for the parents and any estate details

For Unsupported Child's Benefit you also need to bring:

Copies of Family Group Conference outcomes or Court Orders or Court approved plans

Orphan's / Unsupported Child's Benefit obligations and privacy

Work and Income
Te Hirainga Tangata

A service of the Ministry of Social Development

You need to read and complete this section.

This part of the application form:

- lists the applicant's obligations
- explains what will happen if obligations are not met
- explains how we protect the information given to us, and what we can do with it
- includes a signature page for you to sign.

Obligations

These are what you have to do to receive payments from Work and Income. Please read all the obligations because they could apply to you if your circumstances change.

Change of circumstances

I must tell Work and Income or my Contracted Service Provider (where I have one assigned to me) immediately if :

- the care and/or support arrangements for the child change
- the financial circumstances of the child change
- either the child or I intend to travel overseas
- I have changes to personal details (such as name, address or bank account number)
- either the child or I have any other change that may affect my benefit entitlement or rate.

Not telling us about changes in your circumstances

I understand that if I do not tell Work and Income about changes that might affect whether I can get Orphan's/Unsupported Child's Benefit or the amount I'm paid, that:

- my benefit may be reviewed and cancelled, and
- I may have to pay back the total amount of any overpayment that I have received, and
- Work and Income may impose a penalty (up to three times the value of the overpayment), and
- I may be prosecuted and fined or imprisoned.

You have the right to review or dispute any decision to reduce or stop your benefit.

Privacy Statement

The legislation administered by the Ministry of Social Development allows us to check the information that you give us. This may happen when you apply for assistance and at any time after that. The Privacy Act 1993 requires us to tell you why we collect the information and what we will do with it.

Why we collect information

The information you give us or your Contracted Service Provider (where you have one assigned to you) is collected under the authority of the legislation administered by the Ministry of Social Development. The information will be held by the Ministry of Social Development and/or your Contracted Service Provider.

The information is collected for the purposes of the legislation administered by the Ministry of Social Development (including Work and Income, Child, Youth and Family and other service lines of the Ministry), and in particular for:

- granting benefits and other assistance under the Social Security Act 1964
- providing employment related services
- statistical and research purposes
- providing advice to Government
- care and protection needs of children
- providing support and services for you and your family
- providing education related services.

Work and Income and your Contracted Service Provider will exchange information about you in order to provide you with your correct financial assistance and other services. Your Contracted Service Provider may collect information from other agencies where that information is relevant to the services that the Contracted Service Provider is providing you.

You are not required to give Work and Income or your Contracted Service Provider information, but if you do not give them, or us, all the information we ask for, your application for benefits and other assistance may be declined.

We may contact health providers

Work and Income or your Contracted Service Provider may contact health providers to check any health related information you give us.

We may compare the information you give us with other government-held information

The information you give us, or your Contracted Service Provider, may be compared with information held by other government agencies such as Inland Revenue, the Ministry of Justice, the Department of Corrections, the New Zealand Customs Service, the Department of Internal Affairs, the Accident Compensation Corporation, Housing New Zealand Corporation, Ministry of Health and Immigration New Zealand. It may also be compared with social security information (for example, pension or benefit information) held by other governments (including Australia and the Netherlands).

We may share information with Inland Revenue

Under the Tax Administration Act 1994, if you have dependent children, the information you give us, or your Contracted Service Provider, may be shared with Inland Revenue for the purpose of administering Working for Families Tax Credits. Inland Revenue may also:

- use the information for the purposes of child support, student loans and taxation
- disclose it to the Ministry of Business, Innovation, and Employment, Statistics New Zealand, the Ministry of Justice, the Accident Compensation Corporation, and the Ministry of Education
- disclose your personal information to your partner.

We may give information to service providers, employers and childcare providers

Work and Income or your Contracted Service Provider may:

- give employers information about you to find you employment and contact the employer to discuss the result of any job interview that you are referred to
- share information with childcare centres to administer your entitlement to childcare assistance
- give information about you to the Tertiary Education Commission, Workbridge, training providers, career services or other agencies that have a formal agreement to provide services on behalf of Work and Income.

We may use your information to give you a better service

Other information that you give us or your Contracted Service Provider that is not required to assess your entitlement to a benefit (for example, on your skills, aspirations, family circumstances) may be used to provide a better service to you by your Contracted Service Provider or the Ministry of Social Development.

You have the right to see and correct your information

Under the Privacy Act 1993 you have the right to ask to see all information we, or your Contracted Service Provider, hold about you and to ask them, or us, to correct that information.
