

Thank you for considering Citizens Independent Bank (the "Bank") in your request for financing. This form is intended to provide disclosure to you of your rights under the Equal Credit Opportunity Act. We welcome any questions you have. The credit application process at the Bank consists of two parts, a preliminary information phase and the completion of the application. At your option, you may choose to provide the initial information and then discuss your request with a Banker, or you may provide all the information needed by the Bank for your application to be considered complete before discussing your request. You should make note, however, that at any point in the application process, the Bank reserves the right to recognize that sufficient information has been provided to make a credit decision.
