

Dialogues on Diversity

*A new speaker series
for senior leadership*

The Commission on Economic Inclusion and the Cleveland Metropolitan Bar Association (CMBA) invite you to attend the third program in an exciting new series, "Dialogues on Diversity."

This program features executives from University Hospitals (left to right): Thomas F. Zenty III, chief executive officer; Janet L. Miller, chief legal officer; and Steven D. Standley, chief administrative officer. The panel will be moderated by Richik Sarkar, McDonald Hopkins LLC.

The program will be held Tuesday, June 17, from 5:30 to 6:30 p.m., with a reception to follow at the CMBA offices, 1301 East 9th Street, 2nd Level - Galleria. Parking is available in the Galleria garage (entrance on Lakeside) for $3.00 after 4 p.m.

"Dialogues on Diversity" engages area leaders from the legal and corporate community in important discussions about the business and ethical case for diversity and inclusion, as well as effective strategies to promote and improve diversity and inclusion within area businesses, firms, organizations and the public sector. Business leaders discuss why diversity and inclusion is important to their companies and why they value/expect their law firms and other professional consultants to commit to diversity in staffing projects and cases.

Who should attend: CEOs and executive directors, managing partners, general counsels, diversity professionals.

The program is offered at no charge. RSVP to Kris Wisnieski at the CMBA at kwisnieski@clemetrobar.org or call (216) 696-3525.
