The Time Has Come By Steve Pittelko, Editor

So here we are embarking on another school year. In fact, this will be my 9th year in Southland, and although each year has brought with it changes and new challenges, there is something about Southland I can't leave. Maybe it's the staff, maybe it's the students, maybe it's the families, maybe it's just the "feel" of the district, but there's a reason, however abstract it may be, that has kept me here longer than anyplace I've ever been before.

However; as usual, I'm thinking that the summer went by too fast, and I imagine I'm not alone in those thoughts. Even though I might grumble about going back to work, and those same grumbles may be heard from other teachers, staff, and students as well, we all have one thing in common. We all have this little urge inside of us to get back in school. Teachers may grumble, but at the same time they will outwardly express their excitement at "seeing the kids again", and although it may be phrased in this way, what they are really saying is that they can't wait to get back to "teaching their students again".

Students are no different, they are ready to get back to a routine, get back to seeing their friends, and unbeknownst to many, they are ready to get back to learning. That's not to say that learning, important learning, doesn't happen during the summer. The experiences that many many students are fortunate to have during their summer months shape and build them as individuals in ways that school cannot. How many drove a tractor or ATV for the first time? How many got their drivers license? How many of them learned to swim or caught their first fish? How many visited distant states and saw things that will stick with them forever, things that they will one day share with families of their own?

Obviously this list could go on forever and I'm sure many of you are thinking of the myriad instances of experiential opportunities for learning that took place over the last three months for your student. Many of us adults going back to school had similar opportunities. For example, ever been to Sturgis at the height of the rally? That's an experience let me tell you. The thing is, for all this experience, the nuts and bolt learning of how to place it all in context happens at school and I think that's what teachers look forward too, and what students gain whether they realize it or not.

To be fair, school is hard for all of us at times; students, parents, staff, administration, and teachers alike all have to strike a balance between home and school, work and play, not to mention those little (and not so little) impositions that life tends to throw at us all. There are challenging students and there are challenging teachers, challenging homework, and challenging decisions to be made in regard to how best meet the needs of a diverse population of learners and educators. The thing to remember, is that it happens. Every single year the challenges are met and every single person in the school is changed in some positive way. Some may be resistant in their ability accept that these changes occurred, but that's an entirely different issue.

At the only other school I ever worked, we had announcements over the loudspeaker every day and at the end of the announcements whoever was doing the talking always said the same thing: "Make it a good day or not, the choice is yours." I've used that phrase with my own children ever since, and I've said it to myself at the beginning of every school year here in Southland, and I say it to you now:

Make it a good year or not, the choice is ours.

Easing Separation Anxiety

(Tip from the Love and Logic® Experts)
By Ms. Bauserman, School Social Worker

I am often asked, "How do I help my child feel less anxious about going to daycare, school or the babysitter?" If you have kids, the odds are pretty high that you've pondered this question and wondered what to do. Listed below are some quick tips:

- Remember that kids take their emotional cues from the adults around them. The calmer and more business-like we act, the easier it'll be for our kids.
 - o Avoid doing too much reassuring.
 - o Strangely, the more we talk with our little ones about how much fun they are going to have, the more anxiety they seem to have. It's as if they reason, "If my parents have to tell me this is going to be okay, maybe it won't."
 - Make the transition short and sweet.
 - The quicker you move, the faster your child will calm down once you leave.
 - Don't look back.
 - Although it's hard to resist the urge to go back and comfort your child, he or she will calm down far quicker if you keep going and don't look back.

While all children are different, some separation anxiety is normal and healthy. Generally speaking, the children who feel the most secure when they are with their parents are the ones who feel the most secure when they are away from their parents. A large part of providing this security involves combining big doses of love with good, solid limits.

Indoor Air Quality

Southland Public Schools have developed an indoor air quality management plan for the district. The management plan addresses policies and procedures that will be used in the schools to address indoor air quality issues. The indoor quality committee had the health and safety committee review the management plan and the board approved the plan in the 2003-2004 fiscal school year.

If you have any questions concerning indoor air quality, or would like to use the EPA tools for schools checklists, please contact the district indoor air quality coordinator, Steve Sallee at (507) 582-3283.

Pesticide Notice

All Minnesota schools are required to inform parents/guardians and school employees that they may request to be notified prior to pesticide application on school property. Pesticides include chemicals which are used to control insects, weeds, rodents or other pests as defined by the law (M.S. 123B.575, Subd 9).

In order to provide the required information, schools must maintain a list of parents/guardians and school employees who request notification. Schools must also provide information about individual pesticide applications upon request, including the name of the pesticide product, and the time and location of the planned application.

Pesticides and non-chemical treatments may be used in combination in and around schools for a variety of reasons, including the control of pests which have the potential to bite, sting, spread disease, cause asthma, and/or trigger an allergic reaction. Pesticides may also be used to prevent or control damage to materials within the school building or to the school building itself, or to control pests or weeds that are seen as a nuisance.

The long-term health effects on children from the application of such pesticides or the class of chemicals to which they belong may not be fully understood. Children may be more susceptible to pesticides than adults due to their small size and rapid growth and development.

To limit the potential pesticide exposure, this school follows safety regulations to ensure pesticides are applied properly. All pesticide products, which are used in and around school buildings, are required to be registered with the Minnesota Department of Agriculture and the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency. In addition, school employees and certified and licensed applicators are required by state and federal law to comply with all requirements of the pesticide label, including building sites, application rates, re-entry intervals, posting, use of personal protective equipment, use restrictions, and disposal of the product label.

To be notified about pesticide applications, please contact:

Hi,

Welcome to another exciting year at Southland Schools. There have been many changes made over the course of the summer. The bus garage project is done. New lights have been added to the football field and a newly refinished gym floor, along with other improvements to the buildings and grounds. Be sure to keep up to date with schedules and bus times via our website. In the article below are some web sites for information regarding concussions. It would be worth your while if you have a young person out for sports for you to view it together.

Parents and Student Athletes: Online Training Course

Get prepared for the new season in less than 30 minutes: Heads Up: Concussion in Youth Sports is a free, online course available to parents to keep their child safe from concussion.

Things to think about

Shake It Off And Step Up

A parable is told of a farmer who owned an old mule. The mule fell into the farmer's well. The farmer heard the mule 'braying' - or - whatever mules do when they fall into wells. After carefully assessing the situation, the farmer sympathized with the mule, but decided that neither the mule nor the well was worth the trouble of saving. Instead, he called his neighbors together and told them what had happened...and enlisted them to help haul dirt to bury the old mule in the well and put him out of his misery.

Initially, the old mule was hysterical! But as the farmer and his neighbors continued shoveling and the dirt hit his back...a thought struck him. It suddenly dawned on him that every time a shovel load of dirt landed on his back...HE SHOULD SHAKE IT OFF AND STEP UP! This he did, blow after blow.

"Shake it off and step up...shake it off and step up...shake it off and step up!" he repeated to encourage himself. No matter how painful the blows, or distressing the situation seemed the old mule fought "panic" and just kept right on SHAKING IT OFF AND STEPPING UP!

You're right! It wasn't long before the old mule, battered and exhausted, STEPPED TRIUMPHANTLY OVER THE WALL OF THAT WELL! What seemed like it would bury him, actually blessed him...all because of the manner in which he handled his adversity.

THAT'S LIFE!

If we face our problems and respond to them positively, and refuse to give in to panic, bitterness, or self-pity...THE ADVERSITIES THAT COME ALONG TO BURY US USUALLY HAVE WITHIN THEM THE POTENTIAL TO BENEFIT AND BLESS US! Remember that FORGIVENESS--PRAISE and HOPE...all are excellent ways to "SHAKE IT OFF AND STEP UP" out of the wells in which we find ourselves!

Southland Foodservice is excited to be entering into the Farm-to-School program for 2011-2012 school year with local produce from two local vendors. The Swenson's who operate the Rose Creek Honey Company will be supplying all the honey for our school use. And 3 Sister's Garlic, operated by Southland students Ashley, Morgan and Autumn Brown, will be supplying garlic, and perhaps some onions and potatoes.

Foodservice is still very happy to accept produce from local gardeners in the district who are trying to find someone to give away their excess products to. If there are any other farms or producers in the area who would like to enter into Southland School District's Farm-to-

School program please contact Foodservice Manager Lea Ann Gilbert at 507-582-3568 or e-mail kitchen@isd500.k12.mn.us

Grain for Graduates

With the cost of college and 2 year training programs growing, Southland Public Education Foundation wants to increase the scholarship fund to help more students. We are asking our farmers to help by donating bushels of beans or corn to go into the scholarship fund for both a scholarship to a vocational training program and college. Every penny goes for scholarships and it is all tax deductible as the Foundation has 501 (3) C status.

The Adams, Dexter, Elkton, and Rose Creek elevators are working with the Foundation to collect Soybeans from farmers wishing to donate beans to the scholarship fund. All the farmer has to do is tell the elevator how many bushels of beans or corn they wish to donate to the Foundation from a truck/wagon load and the elevator will issue a check on behalf of the farmer for the price of those beans designated to the Foundation. The Foundation will send each donor a thank you that can be used for tax records.

Also, cash donations can be made at our Adams, Dexter, Elkton, and Rose Creek Banks.

This is the second year of this scholarship fund raiser. Last year $1100 was raised and two scholarships were given out at graduation to a student attending vocational school in an Ag related program and to one attending college. Last year the focus was on soybeans so it was called Soybeans for Scholarship but this year corn is also an option.

Agriculture is the largest industry in the Southland School District. Our farmers have always been very supportive of the education of our youth. They know the knowledge it requires to be a successful farmer. The quality of our farmers is very evident in the year-in and year-out success of their operations whether it is good times or tough times.

A Special Teacher

Years ago a John Hopkin's professor gave a group of graduate students this assignment: Go to the slums. Take 200 boys, between the ages of 12 and 16, and investigate their background and environment. Then predict their chances for the future.

The students, after consulting social statistics, talking to the boys, and compiling much data, concluded that 90 percent of the boys would spend some time in jail.

Twenty-five years later another group of graduate students was given the job of testing the prediction. They went back to the same area. Some of the boys - by then men - were still there, a few had died, some had moved away, but they got in touch with 180 of the original 200. They found that only four of the group had ever been sent to jail.

Why was it that these men, who had lived in a breeding place of crime, had such a surprisingly good record? The researchers were continually told: "Well, there was a teacher..."

They pressed further, and found that in 75 percent of the cases it was the same woman. The researchers went to this teacher, now living in a home for retired teachers. How had she exerted this remarkable influence over that group of children? Could she give them any reason why these boys should have remembered her?

"No," she said, "no I really couldn't." And then, thinking back over the years, she said amusingly, more to herself than to her questioners: "I loved those boys...."

What is ECFE?

Early Childhood Family Education is a program that celebrates the importance of families in the development of children from birth to kindergarten enrollment. Parenting is a challenging and delightful experience. Come discuss positive and practical ways to help you and your children move through the all-important first five years of developmental milestones. We will look at our values, understanding children at various ages, and dealing with difficult behaviors. We will explore ways to grow as parents and develop strong family relationships. While parents are in discussion, children learn with an early childhood teacher. Classes also include a parent-child time to explore a variety of fun learning activities together.

ECFE is a special place where parents and children can enjoy the magic of childhood together.

The Goals of Early Childhood Family Education Are:

- To support parents in their child raising efforts
 - To offer information about child development and alternative parenting techniques.
 - To help parents and their children communicate better
 - To promote positive parental attitudes
 - To provide information on community resources available to parents and children.
1. You can spend time with the most awesome child in the universe-your very own pride and joy.
 2. It's convenient and the price is right.
 3. What better way could you spend your time than building a relationship and memories with your child that will last forever!

SCHOOL CENSUS

The viability of the Early Childhood Family Education program and other programs in the Southland School District relates to the school census. It is crucial that we know about all residents that have preschool children. If you are new to the district or know of someone new to the district with children 0- 5 years old, please contact Vicki at the elementary office. The number is 507-437-3214.

Early Childhood Screening October 28

Each year the Southland School District provides children ages three and older the opportunity to participate in an Early Childhood Developmental and Physical Screening. A well trained staff will examine your child's vision, hearing, speech and language, dental status, nutritional status, immunization statuses, developmental status and family information. The school uses the screening results to plan educational and health programs and link children who have specific needs to those programs. The sooner a potential problem can be identified the better the chances are for successful intervention which is why the state requires children 3 years old be screened. The District will be contacting you with an appointment if your child is age 3- 4 yrs. If you have any questions, please call the Early Childhood center at 582-3405.

Let Children Be Children

Let children be children
while they are young

For in a blink of an eye, they're grown.

Give them time to think and ponder

Time to feel and look and wonder.

Time to question, why and when

Time to try...and try again.

Time without the stress and worry
Of premature demands and hurry.

Take time to encourage and in love, lead;
and they will create, explore and succeed.

Who decides what courses will be offered?

You do. From phone calls, evaluation forms, and surveys, you tell us what courses you want, and we listen. Then we do the work to find the appropriate personnel to bring you the information you want.

We are always looking for individuals who would like to share their hobbies, talents, and skills by teaching a Community Education Class. Most instructors are not professional teachers. They are community people like you, who enjoy being with people and sharing their talents. Instructors are paid.

Who takes Community Ed Classes?

People just like you. - People who are in search of life enrichment and want to meet interesting people. People who are striving for personal and professional growth take Community Ed Classes. The classes are designed with the idea that learning is life-long and doesn't necessarily happen within four walls of a school. They are also a fun and a great way to meet new people.

Why are classes often in the schools?

The Community Ed program is the part of the school district designed to link the schools and community. Because the school buildings belong to you - the public- we like to give you every opportunity to get into the classrooms and do some learning yourself. With that in mind, we invite you to attend any of the Community Ed Classes that interest you. Sit back and read the schedule and call today for a class that interests you.

Early Childhood Screening

Each year the Southland School District provides children ages three and older the opportunity to participate in an Early Childhood Developmental and Physical Screening. A well-trained staff will examine your child's vision, hearing, speech and language, dental status, nutritional status, immunization status, developmental status and family information. The school uses the screening results to plan educational and health programs and link children who have specific needs to those programs. The sooner a potential problem can be identified, the better the chances are for successful intervention which is why the state requires children 3 years old to be screened. The District will be contacting you with an appointment if your child is age 3-4 years old. If you have any questions, please call the Early Childhood center at 582-3405.

DID YOU KNOW???

The Mower County Safe Communities Coalition in conjunction with the Mower County District Court have compiled the following statistics from court cases throughout Mower County during the period of January 1, 2011 through June 30, 2011:

DWI	Seat Belts	Speeding
Conviction Rate: 98%	Conviction Rate: 99%	Conviction Rate: 96%
Avg. Fine: $470.28	Avg. Fine: $116.34	Avg. Fine: $133.42
Age:Age: 36	Avg. Age: 37	Avg. Age: 36
% Male 78%	% Male 72%	% Male 67%
% Female 22%	% Female 28%	% Female 33%

The message is clear...with conviction rates at 96% to 98%, if you choose to drink and drive, not use seat belts, or speed, when you get pulled over, you will be convicted and you will pay a hefty fine. Can you afford it? Remember...Don't Drink and Drive, Click It or Ticket, and Obey the Sign, or Pay the Fine!
