

General Information

Little Charger Preschool is part of the Family and Consumer Sciences department at Kentridge High School. High school students enrolled in the Exploring Childhood Internship class will be working with the preschoolers on a one-to-one basis. Through their work they gain first-hand knowledge of the growth and development of children. They will gain skills working as a future teacher in the preschool with the guidance of the high school teacher and preschool teacher. The students will be planning and teaching lessons throughout the semester and can qualify to earn a STARS professional certificate.

Goals

- ❖ Provide a variety of experiences for the child to grow intellectually, emotionally, socially and physically.
- ❖ Help the child to develop a positive self-esteem. Be able to make choices, think and solve problems on their own, and grow to be independent.
- ❖ Through play the children will develop learning strategies, critical thinking skills and build a foundation for lifelong learning.
