Understand
Construction Drawings and Related Documents!

Use the North Lobby entrance (closest to 270) and hit the "C" button to get to the lower level.

What should you, as a property manager, be looking for on construction drawings?

Who are the players in a construction project and what are their areas of expertise?

What do those symbols on the blueprints mean and why are they important?

Our presenter, Dan C. Coffey, is Vice President of Business Development for Therrien Waddel Construction Group. Mr. Coffey directs the business development operations of the company, which includes marketing, pre-construction planning, estimating and scheduling. He has over 25 years of experience, having served as senior project manager and director of construction for area firms before joining the group in 1985.

Don't miss this opportunity to learn from an expert and increase your professional edge!
