Note. Specifications for filing Forms W-2, Wage and Tax Statement, electronically are only available from the Social Security Administration (SSA). Call 1-800-772-6270 for more information or visit the SSA's Employer W-2 Filing Instructions & Information page at www.socialsecurity.gov/employer.

When to file. File Form 8809 as soon as you know an extension of time to file is necessary, but not before January 1 of the filing year. Form 8809 must be filed by the due date of the returns. See the chart below that shows the due dates for filing this form on paper or electronically. Payers/filers of Form W-2 whose business has terminated should see Terminating a business in the Special Reporting Situations for Form W-2 section of the General Instructions for Forms W-2 and W-3 to request an extension.

If you are requesting an extension of time to file several types of forms, you may use one Form 8809, but you must file Form 8809 by the earliest due date. For example, if you are requesting an extension of time to file both Forms 1099 and 5498, you must file Form 8809 by February 28 (March 31 if you file electronically). You may complete more than one Form 8809 to avoid this problem. An extension cannot be granted if a request is filed after the filing due date of the information returns.

The due dates for filing Form 8809 are shown below.

IF you file Form(s) . . .	ON PAPER, then the due date is . . .	ELECTRONICALLY, then the due date is . . .
W-2	Last day of February	March 31
W-2G	February 28	March 31
1042-S	March 15	March 15
1097	February 28	March 31
1098	February 28	March 31
1099	February 28	March 31
3921	February 28	March 31
3922	February 28	March 31
5498	May 31	May 31
8027	Last day of February	March 31

If any due date falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, file by the next business day.

Note. File your information returns as soon as they are ready and do not send a copy of Form 8809 or any letters with the returns you file (see exception below).

Exception. When filing Form 8027 on paper only, attach a copy of your timely filed Form 8809.

Extension period. The automatic extension is 30 days from the original due date. You may request one additional extension of not more than 30 days by submitting a second Form 8809 before the end of the first extension period (see Line 5, later). Requests for an additional extension of time to file information returns are not automatically granted. Generally, requests for additional time are granted only where it is shown that extenuating circumstances prevented filing by the date granted by the first request.

Note. The automatic extension of time to file and any approved requests for additional time will only extend the due date for filing the information returns with the IRS. It does not extend the due date for furnishing statements to recipients.

Penalty. Payers/filers may be subject to a late filing penalty if required information returns are filed late and you have not applied for and received an approved extension of time to file. The amount of the penalty is based on when you file the correct information return. For more information on penalties, see part O in the General Instructions for Certain Information Returns, and Penalties in the Instructions for Form 1042-S, the Instructions for Form 8027, and the General Instructions for Forms W-2 and W-3.
