California Applicants: If you are married, you may apply for a separate account.
The Ohio laws against discrimination require that all creditors make credit equally available to all credit  Ohio Applicants: worthy customers, and that credit reporting agencies maintain separate credit histories on each individual upon request. The Ohio Civil Rights Commission administers compliance with this law.
WISCONSIN RESIDENTS ONLY: Notice to married applicants: No provision of any marital property agreement, a unilateral statement under Wis. Stat. § 766.59 or a court decree under Wis. Stat. § 766.70 adversely affects the interest of the creditor unless the creditor, prior to the time the credit is granted, is furnished a copy of the agreement, statement or decree or has actual knowledge of the adverse provision when the obligation to the creditor is incurred. The credit being applied for, if granted, will be incurred in the interest of my marriage or family. I understand that the creditor may be required by law to give notice of the credit transaction to my spouse.
