Q25. There are currently proposals being discussed to expand Medicaid to provide health insurance to more low-income uninsured adults, including adults with no children whose incomes are below about $16,000 per year. The federal government will initially play the entire cost of this expansion, and after several years, states will pay 10 percent and the federal government will pay 90 percent. If Tennessee chooses not to expand Medicaid, uninsured individuals will likely continue to receive most of their medical treatment in emergency rooms which increases health care costs for the insured. The Supreme Court ruled that states may choose whether or not to participate in this expansion. Which of the following two options is closest to your view even if neither is exactly right? (Keep Medicaid as it is today, with no new funding from the federal government and no change in who will be covered by the program). Or, (expand Medicaid to cover more low-income uninsured people, with the federal government initially paying the entire cost of the expansion and Tennessee eventually paying ten percent)?

- 1 Keep Medicaid as it is
- 2 Expand Medicaid

(There is no Q26 in this survey instrument.)

Q27. Recently, the Tennessee state legislature has been debating whether individuals with handgun carry permits should be allowed to keep guns in their vehicles while on their employer's private property. On one hand, if workers are not permitted to keep a gun in their vehicle, then they will not be able to exercise their right to carry guns on their commute to work. On the other hand, employers have a right to determine whether or not to allow guns on their property. Do you think employers should be required by the state to allow their employees to keep a gun in their vehicle if they have the required permits?

- 1 Should be required to allow
- 2 Should not be required to allow
- 8 Don't know (v)
- 9 Refused (v)

(There is no Q28 or Q29 in this survey instrument.)

Q30. Since 1970, judges on the Tennessee Supreme Court have been chosen by the Governor from a list of qualified candidates put forward by a nominating commission. The State Legislature has been debating whether Tennessee voters should elect these judges. Some support this change because citizens, rather than the governor, would choose judges. Others oppose the change because judges would have to campaign for election, which might politicize the judicial process. What do you think? Should judges be appointed by the governor, or elected by voters, or haven't you thought much about it?

- 1 Governor chooses
- 2 Voters choose
- 3 Haven't thought much about it
- 8 Don't know (v)
- 9 Refused (v)

- 1 Favor
- 2 Oppose
- 3 Haven't thought much about it
- 8 Don't know (v)
- 9 Refused (v)

Q32. Currently, Tennessee residents are allowed to vote in either the Democratic or the Republican Party's primary when they arrive at the polls on Primary Election Day. Do you think the state should change the rules so that only officially registered party members are allowed to vote in their party's primary, or should people be able to choose which party primary to participate in on Election Day?

- 1 Yes, change the rules
- 2 No, rules should be left how they are
- 8 Don't know (v)
- 9 Refused (v)

(Half of the respondents were asked Q33-Q36 and half were asked Q37-Q40.)
