“Kids Making a Difference in the Fight Against Cancer”

What is Kids Walk? The Kids Walk is a fun filled celebration that takes place during Relay For Life of Statesville. It is designed to allow young people (through the 5th grade) to get involved in the fight against cancer. Participating kids are invited to walk around the track and take part in the children’s activities and games held during the Relay event.

How to Register: There are two ways to register. You can register online at www.RelayForLife.org/Statesville. From the home page, click on the Sign Up button. Then click Join an Existing Team. Type in “Kids Walk” and then click on Search for a Team. Select Kids Walk, and then Join Our Team. Scroll down to Kids Walk Registration and complete the registration form! You can also complete and mail this registration form to the address below. Please do not turn this registration into your child’s teacher. The registration deadline is Friday, April 23, 2010. Each child who registers by Friday, April 23 and raises $25 or more will receive a Kids Walk t-shirt.
