Practice Test – Alternate Formats (Students with Disabilities)

Copies of practice tests are available in alternate formats to help students with disabilities prepare for the ACT. IMPORTANT: A new practice form is available as of the 2009-2010 testing cycle.

Due to a limited supply of the practice tests in the various formats, we ask that you please review the needs of your students with learning or physical disabilities and place an order for the version(s) that will match the format your students plan to use for the actual test administration.

Upon receiving these alternate version(s), place them where they can be checked out by students and returned for future use by other students (e.g., library). These alternate versions can be used until further notice if they remain in good condition. If and when they need to be replaced, complete another order form or write to us specifying the desired format(s).

Examinees who will test using a regular-type test booklet should use the practice test included in Preparing for the ACT. This booklet also includes a large type (18-pt.) practice Writing Test. Students can obtain this booklet from their high school or download a PDF from www.actstudent.org.
