

CONDITIONAL AND UNCONDITIONAL WAIVER AND RELEASE FORMS

General Principles: No lien release is binding unless the claimant executes (signs) and delivers a waiver and release. If signed by the claimant or his or her authorized agent, the signed form is effective to release:

- the owner;
- the construction lender; and
- the surety (in the case of a payment bond).

Be careful: paying your contractor (and/or getting a release from your contractor) does not guarantee that other claimants, like subcontractors and suppliers, are paid. A claimant is a person who, if not paid, can file a lien on your home.

To be effective, the waiver and release forms must follow substantially one of the forms set forth in Civil Code Section 3267. The four forms are:

- Conditional Waiver and Release Upon Progress Payment

Use this form when the claimant is required to execute a waiver and release in exchange for or in order to induce the payment of a progress payment and the claimant has not been paid. This form is useful when the claimant has not been paid yet, but will be paid out of a progress payment that is not the final payment. This conditional waiver and release is only effective if the claimant is actually paid. This release does not cover all items. See the "Conditional Waiver And Release Upon Progress Payment" form for more information.

- Unconditional Waiver and Release Upon Progress Payment

Use this form when the claimant is required to execute a waiver and release in exchange for or in order to induce payment of a progress payment and the claimant asserts in the waiver that he or she has in fact been paid the progress payment. This release does not cover all items. See the "Unconditional Waiver And Release Upon Progress Payment" form for more information.

• Conditional Waiver and Release Upon Final Payment

Use this form when the claimant is required to execute a waiver and release in exchange for or in order to induce the payment of a final payment and the claimant has not been paid. This release is only binding if there is evidence of payment to the claimant. Evidence of payment may be demonstrated by:

- the claimant's endorsement on a single check or a joint payee check which has been paid by the bank upon which it was drawn; or
- written acknowledgment of payment given by the claimant.

See the "Conditional Waiver and Release Upon Final Payment" form for more information.

Caution: in the case of a conditional release, the release is only binding if there is evidence of payment to the claimant. Evidence of payment may be demonstrated by:

- the claimant's endorsement on a single check or a joint payee check which has been paid by the bank upon which it was drawn; or
- written acknowledgment of payment given by the claimant.

• Unconditional Waiver and Release Upon Final Payment

Use this form when the claimant is required to execute a waiver and release in exchange for, or in order to induce payment of, a final payment and the claimant asserts in the waiver he or she has in fact been paid the final payment. See the "Unconditional Waiver and Release Upon Final Payment" form for more information.
