Representatives of ACE Computer Corporation will be here October 7, 8, and 9 to conduct training sessions for us. These all-day sessions will be held in Conference Room A; equipment will be installed there for our use. Please bring the following materials with you:

- Operating system manual.
- Graphics software manual.
- Word processing software manual.
- Samples of letters, memos, reports, and proposals you have completed during the past six months.

Treat
bulleted items
as paragraphs.

Align text
for readability.

The attached brochure will more fully describe the training we will receive. Please read it before the first session.

These classes will provide a good introduction to our equipment and software. It is important that we all attend. Sessions covering advanced applications will be scheduled after the first of the year.

ENVELOPES

Business and personal-business letters are usually mailed in No. 10 envelopes (4 1/8" x 9 1/2"), but personal-business letters can also be mailed in No. 6 3/4 envelopes (3 5/8" x 6 1/2").

Business envelopes typically have the return address preprinted; therefore, return addresses are keyed only for personal-business letters or when a letterhead envelope is not available. You can use the envelope feature of your word processing program to create the mailing address and, if necessary, the return address for these and other envelope sizes. As you do so, remember these guidelines:

- An address must contain at least three lines; addresses of more than six lines should be avoided.
- The last line of an address must contain the city, the state, and the ZIP Code (preferably the nine-digit code).
- Mailing addresses may use title case or be keyed in uppercase with no punctuation.
- Place mailing notations that affect postage (e.g., CERTIFIED or REGISTERED) below the stamp position.
- Place other notations (e.g., CONFIDENTIAL or PERSONAL) below the return address.

FOLDING AND INSERTING CORRESPONDENCE

Large envelopes (No. 10)

Step 1: With document face up, fold slightly less than 1/3 of sheet toward top.

Step 2: Fold top of sheet to within 1/2" of bottom fold.

Step 3: Insert document into envelope with last crease toward bottom of envelope.

Small envelopes (No. 6 3/4)

Step 1: With document face up, fold bottom up to 1/2" from top.

Step 2: Fold right third to left.

Step 3: Fold left third to 1/2" from last crease and insert last creased edge first.

PROPOSAL

◆ One Park Place

TO: Arthur Lofdahl, Owner
FROM: Ellen Husset, Manager eh
DATE: June 6, 200-
SUBJECT: Reallocation of Lobby Space

On a typical day, more than 3,000 people pass through the lobby of One Park Place, many of them carrying a cup of hot coffee. We could provide a service to those tenants and their clients by installing a coffee kiosk in our lobby.

Background

More than 50 percent of Americans over age 18 drink coffee daily. About one-third of the coffee-drinking public consumes a specialty coffee beverage each day.

Problem

The fourth-floor cafeteria serves only regular and decaffeinated coffee and doesn't have space to brew flavored coffees or make espresso. Therefore, our tenants and their clients who want something other than basic coffee must go elsewhere to purchase their beverages.

The nearest specialty coffee shop is four blocks west of One Park Place, which makes it inconvenient for tenants and guests. In addition, carrying coffee through crowded streets or while toting a briefcase or package can be messy. Last Tuesday, I observed four coffee spills before 7:30 a.m.

Recommendation

I recommend that we reallocate lobby space to accommodate a freestanding coffee kiosk and seating for 10–15 customers. Specifically, I recommend we pursue one of the following options (prioritized):

- Offer our cafeteria food management company the opportunity to lease the space to operate a kiosk.
- Solicit lease/operate kiosk bids from independent vendors.
- Install and operate the kiosk ourselves.

After researching the topic, I am confident we can provide this service with little or no remodeling. If you concur that this service will distinguish our property from others in the area, I'd appreciate the opportunity to discuss the details and cost comparisons with you. If we act within the next month, we can have the service available by October 1.

DENISE RAU NAMED CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER OF KAMIKA INTERNATIONAL

MARQUETTE, MI—Denise Rau has been named Chief Executive Officer of Kamika International, the region's leading producer of cold-weather footwear.

Rau joined Kamika in 1988 after earning her BS degree in Finance from Jackson University. Since then, she has held a variety of posts, most recently Executive Vice President.

In announcing the appointment, Kamika's Board Chairman, Edwin Somerset, said, "Denise has the energy and ideas to propel Kamika into the future. Her experience and her commitment to the company and the people of this region make her an outstanding choice for this important role."

Rau is active in Leadership Marquette, serves on the symphony board, and volunteers with the hospice at County General Hospital. She resides in Marquette with her husband, Fred, and their three children.
