Withdrawal/Transfer Policy

Broker Preclicensing Course:

Withdrawal/Transfer prior to course starting:

- If a student wishes to withdraw prior to class starting, they may transfer to another class or receive a full refund.
Books must be returned in their original condition before a full refund will be given.
Written notice to withdraw or transfer is required.

Withdrawal/Transfer once course has begun:

- A student may withdraw or transfer to another class with written notice - however, the student may not withdraw or transfer after the 15th hour of class.
Students who withdraw with written notice will receive a tuition refund less a $100 service fee.
There are no refunds for "no-shows" after the 15th hour of class.

Note: Written notice (e-mailed, faxed, mailed, or hand-delivered) is required for all withdrawals and transfers. No refund will be issued without written notice.

Broker Postlicensing Courses:

Withdrawal/Transfer prior to course starting:

- If a student wishes to withdraw prior to class starting, they may transfer to another class or receive a full tuition refund.
Written notice is required.

Withdrawal/Transfer once course has begun:

- After the first class session, there are no refunds or transfers available.
There are no refunds for "no-shows."

Note: Written notice (e-mailed, faxed, mailed, or hand-delivered) is required for all withdrawals and transfers. No refund will be issued without written notice.

Continuing Education

No refunds are available. If you are unable to attend the class for which you are registered, Superior School will transfer your tuition to another class within the same CE year if notice is given prior to class.

Special Accommodations:

Individuals requiring reasonable accommodations under the Americans Disabilities Act (ADA) in order to participate fully in an educational event, should contact Teri Carano, tcarano@superiorschoolinc.com or 704-944-4260 at least two weeks prior to the event.

Be prepared to present your NC Real Estate Commission pocket card at the time of check in.
