

NORTHERN TIER CAMBERSHIP APPLICATION

A campership fund has been established for the Northern Tier National High Adventure program, thanks to contributions from the estate of Sonia Maguire. To apply for one of these camperships, please complete the following information. To be considered eligible for a campership, Northern Tier must receive an applicant's full application (application form, recommendation letter, essay, and parental letter) before the deadline listed below. All submissions should be mailed to the address at the bottom of this application form.

The amount of the campership granted will vary based on trip length, program registered for, financial need as expressed in supporting documents and funding available.
