Film Society Rules

A violation of any of these rules will result in the confiscation of your Film Society card. You will be issued a pro-rated refund for the remainder of the season.

1. Admittance to all screenings is by your Film Society membership card. Membership cards may be used ONLY by the person to whom it was issued plus one guest. If the member, however, is unable to attend, the membership card may be used by the member's spouse or spousal equivalent, but NOT by any other family member. Your Film Society membership permits you to attend ONLY one screening per film.
2. The security guard at the door may ask you to show BOTH your Film Society membership card and your WGAW membership card. (He's a nice man, simply doing his job.) If you are asked, and you cannot produce both cards, you will be refused admittance. Upon request, a photo I.D. must also be shown.
3. EXTRA GUESTS: You may purchase a maximum of 4 tickets per film. Guests' tickets may be purchased at the Guild office until 4:30 PM Friday. You may either mail a check made payable to WGAW or purchase tickets online at <https://www.wgaw.org/wgasite>. Payment must be received prior to the screening. UNPAID EXTRA GUESTS WILL NOT BE PERMITTED AT THE DOOR. Cost for each extra guest is $3. You MAY NOT buy guest tickets at the theater, only through the Guild office. Your extra guest(s) must accompany you to the screening. Tickets are NON-TRANSFERABLE and NO REFUNDS/CREDITS are allowed.
4. Your membership in the Film Society is contingent upon your membership in the Guild. In the event your WGAW membership goes in arrears, you withdraw, or become automatically withdrawn, the computer system will stop sending you Film Society notices. If you're out of the Guild, you're out of the Film Society.
5. Children between the ages of 3 and 10 will be permitted to films rated G, PG & PG-13 for the 11AM & 2 PM screenings only (unless otherwise noted on the screening schedule).
6. Doors will be closed promptly when the screening begins. Late comers will have to come back for a later screening. (Members are requested to bring in only their invited guest(s), and not those who might approach them outside.)
7. Anyone found guilty of raucous behavior (talking back to the screen, etc.) will be dropped from the Film Society and his/her unused membership fee refunded accordingly. We must insist on civilized decorum at these screenings if we want to continue to receive films from the studios.
8. The use of cell phones, email devices, and texting in the theater is strictly prohibited. We ask that all cell phones and electronic devices be turned off prior to the beginning of the film. In the event of pre-release screenings, cameras, camera phones or other recording devices are NOT permitted into the theater.
9. No smoking, food or drinks (including bottled water) are permitted in the theater at any time. This includes gum, candy, etc.
10. As a courtesy, please remain seated until the end title credits are finished so the audience behind you can read them.

We welcome you, but if these rules do not meet with your complete approval or convenience please do not apply for membership in the Film Society. The purpose of our rules is to make our screenings a good experience for all members. Just return the enclosed application card with your check or credit card information. We hope you're one of the lucky 1,800 MEMBERS!
