Official transcripts of academic records are released only by signed written request. Students currently enrolled at Waubonsie Valley High School, Neuqua Valley High School or Metea Valley High School will not be charged a transcript fee. No official transcript will be released directly to the person making the request. If you request this, an unofficial transcript may be provided. If you have already graduated, a $5.00 fee is charged per transcript requested. Payment to the respective school must be received before release of transcript will be made. The receiving party will not consider any transcript that is faxed official. ACT and SAT scores will not appear on transcripts. Test scores must be requested directly from the testing company.

I approve release of my transcript.
