

Affidavit and Order to Continue Income Assignment for Child Support P-3113

This form is used to inform the court, the other party, and the State (if a party) that you are requesting to continue the income assignment for child support after May 31st following the 18th birthday of the youngest or only child because the child has not yet turned 19 and will still be enrolled in high school or pursuing an accredited course of instruction leading to a high school diploma or its equivalent. If you do not complete this form, the income assignment for current support for the child will end on May 31st following the date of the child's 18th birthday. This request does NOT require that you or the other party appear in court.

You are encouraged to seek legal assistance to verify that these forms are the most appropriate for your situation, as court staff, including those in the Self-Help Center, cannot give legal advice.

Procedural Checklist

1. Complete the Affidavit and Order to Continue Income Assignment for Child Support.
2. Go to the Court Self-Help Center to have your forms notarized, reviewed for completeness, and copied, if needed. The court requires that you have the original and four (4) copies of the form and supporting documents (5 copies if the State is a party).
3. Before filing with the court, send a copy of the form and all supporting documents to the other party and to the Waukesha County Child Support Division, if it is a party.

4. Prepare two (2) stamped envelopes. Address one to you and one to the other party.
5. Go to the customer service window of the Family Court Office to file the original, the remaining copies, and the envelopes.
6. The court will hold the documents for five days to wait for an objection, review the documents and either:

approve and send each party a copy of the signed Affidavit and Order (if you provided the self-addressed stamped envelopes). It will become part of the official court record and the income assignment for child support will continue accordingly.

Or

not approve and provide an explanation.

RULES OF THE WAUKESHA COUNTY CIRCUIT COURT
FAMILY COURT DIVISION

Rule 3.2 Vacation or Maintenance of Income Assignment after 18th Birthday of Child

For cases involving a single child, or one remaining minor child, any order for income assignment for current child support shall be terminated once the child turns 18 years of age and has graduated from high school or age 19 if the child is pursuing an accredited course of instruction leading to the acquisition of a high school diploma or its equivalent. Unless an Order exists which provides a specific date for termination of child support, the following shall apply:

- a. Any income assignment for current child support shall be terminated on May 31st following the last remaining child's 18th birthday.
- b. If the child is still pursuing a high school education, any party may file a written request with the court including an affidavit with proof of the child's continued high school enrollment and date of anticipated graduation. Such request and affidavit shall be provided to any other party. Upon receipt of such request with report of notice, and expiration of the time to object under the local five-day rule, the income assignment for current child support will be continued through the anticipated date of graduation.
- c. Where the remaining child has turned 18 years of age and has or is about to graduate from high school, to terminate the current child support income assignment, a party may file a request with an affidavit containing proof of the child's graduation (e.g. copy of diploma or letter from the school regarding date of graduation or anticipated graduation). Such request and affidavit shall be provided to any other party. Upon receipt of such request with report of notice, and expiration of the time to object under the local five-day rule, then the income assignment for current child support will be terminated upon that graduation date.

Although an income assignment for current child support may be terminated, an income assignment shall continue in effect until any arrearage is paid in full pursuant to section 767.265(1m) Wis.Stats., unless there is an Order that directs a different payment plan on arrears.

This rule does not alter any order for the payment of child support, but only affects issuance and vacation of income assignments.

This rule does not apply where there continues to be one or more children under the child support order. For cases involving multiple children under the age of 18, modifications of any income assignment must be done by court order.
