

The Cornwall Community Foundation manages and distributes funding on behalf of individuals, companies, charitable trusts and statutory agencies to meet needs in Cornwall and Isles of Scilly.

We welcome applications for ...

The Clare Milne Trust

Supporting disability projects in the South West

The Charity was established in 2002 by Clare Milne, who sadly died recently, with funds derived from her grandfather, A A Milne. Clare was herself disabled and had therefore experienced the benefits to be derived from well run hands-on charities.

The aim of the Clare Milne Trust is to help smaller effective charities with good volunteer support with their work for the disabled in or close to Devon and Cornwall.

The Clare Milne Trust support:

- disability projects
- in the South West, mainly in Devon and Cornwall - for larger grants please view the Clare Milne Trust's direct website www.claremilnetrust.com, for grants up to £1,000 for the benefit of groups in Cornwall please apply to The Cornwall Community Foundation.

We are looking for local and regional charities, which are

- small and well-run
- with strong support from volunteers
- with modest expenditure on fundraising & administration

To make an application please e-mail or write to us detailing the below:

1. State clearly who the organisation or body applying to us is, what they do and whom they seek to help.
2. Give the applicant's status, e.g., registered charity.
3. If you are applying for general funding, how many people does the body help or will otherwise benefit from it?
4. If you are applying to fund a project, describe the project clearly, in particular:
  - Its aim and why is it needed?
  - How many people will benefit from it?
  - What stage has it reached so far?
  - State what funds have already been raised for it, and name any other people or bodies to which you have applied for funding.
  - If on-going funding is required after the project is in place explain where this will be obtained.
5. Please state the amount sought.
