Song Lyrics for Mrs. Baker's Concert

1. Big Rock Candy Mountain

In the big rock candy mountain, there's a land that fair and bright
Where the handouts grow on bushes and they sleep out every night
Where the boxcars are all empty, and the sun shines every day.
Oh I'm bound to go where there isn't any snow
Where the rain doesn't fall and the wind doesn't blow
On the big rock candy mountain.
Oh, the buzzing of the bees and the sycamore trees
Round the soda water fountain,
And the lemonade springs and the blue bird sings
On the big rock candy mountain.
In the big rock candy mountain
All the cows have wooden legs.
All the bulldogs are all toothless, and the hens lay soft-boiled eggs
All the trees are full of apples and the barns are full of hay
There's a lake of stew and soda pop too you can paddle all around
In a big canoe, in the big rock candy mountain.

7.The Dream of Martin Luther King

Once there was a gentleman who talked about a Promised Land
He reached out and took the troubles of the people in his strong black hands.

Sing about the dream of Martin Luther King.
Oh the dream, the dream of Martin Luther King.
Oh the Dream, the dream of Martin Luther King.
Sing about the dream of Martin Luther King.
In his dream he saw the people of his land walking side by side.
White man, Black man, Red man, Yellow man loving one another with pride.
Now he's gone away before the day his dream became a real thing.
But he'll hear the angels sing about the dream of Martin Luther King.

And he knew  the fight would be long.
He talked  about a new day,
But he walked  a dangerous way.
He knew  the life of the slum,
But he sang we shall overcome.

O say, can you see,
By the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, thro' the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming?
And the rocket's red glare, the bombs bursting in air
Gave proof thro' the night that our flag was still there
O say, does that Star - Spangled Banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

13. The Marvelous Toy

When I was just a wee little lad, full of health and joy,
My father homeward came on night and gave to me a toy.
A wonder to behold it was, with many colors bright,
And the moment I laid eyes on it, it became my heart's delight.

It went zip when it moved and bop when it stopped and whirr when it stood still,
I never know just what it was and I guess I never will.
It went zip when it moved and bop when it stopped and whirr when it stood still,
I never know just what it was and I guess I never will

The first time that I picked it up, I had a big surprise,
For right on its bottom were two big buttons that looked like big green eyes,
I first pushed one and then the other, And then I twisted its lid,
And when I se it down again, This is what it did.

It went zip when it moved and bop when it stopped and whirr when it stood still,

I never know just what it was and I guess I never will.
It went zip when it moved and bop when it stopped and whirr when it stood still,
I never know just what it was and I guess I never will

I first marched left and then marched right and then marched under a chair,
And when I looked where it had gone, it wasn't even there!
I started to sob and my daddy laughed, for he knew that I would find,
When I turned around that marvelous toy was chugging from behind.

It went zip when it moved and bop when it stopped and whirr when it stood still,
I never know just what it was and I guess I never will.
It went zip when it moved and bop when it stopped and whirr when it stood still,
I never know just what it was and I guess I never will

Well, the years have gone by too quickly, it seems, and I have my own little boy,
And yesterday I gave to him my marvelous little toy.
His eyes nearly popped right out of his head and he gave a squeal of glee,
Neither one of us know just what it is, but he loves it, just like me.

It went zip when it moved and bop when it stopped and whirr when it stood still,
I never know just what it was and I guess I never will.
It went zip when it moved and bop when it stopped and whirr when it stood still,
I never know just what it was and I guess I never will

14. Don Gato

Oh, Senor Don Gato was a cat, On a high, red roof Don Gato sat.
He went there to read a letter, Meow, meow, meow,
Where the reading light was better, Meow, meow, meow,
‘Twas a love note for Don Gato!

I adore you! wrote the lady cat, who was fluffy, white and nice and fat.
There was not a sweeter kitty, meow , meow, meow.
In the country or the city, meow, meow, meow,
And she said she'd wed Don Gato!

Oh, Don Gato jumped so happily, He fell off the rood and broke his knee,
Broke his ribs and all his whiskers, meow, meow, meow,
And his little solar plexus, meow, meow, meow,
!Ay, caramba! Cried Don Gato.

Then the doctors all came on the run Just to see if something could be done.
And they held a consultation, meow, meow, meow,
About how to save their patient, meow, meow, meow,
How to save Senor Don Gato.

But in spite of everything they tried, Poor Senor Don Gato up and died.

Oh, it wasn't very merry, meow, meow, meow,
Going to the cemetery, meow, meow, meow,
For the ending of Don Gato!

When the funeral passed the market square Such a smell of fish was in the air.
Though his burial was slated meow, meow, meow,
He became re-animated! meow, meow, meow,
He came back to life, Don Gato
