The Stark County Health Department is now offering an approved course by the Ohio Department of Health for Level 1 Certification in food protection. This food safety training is open to anyone, yet is now mandatory under the following circumstances:

New Operations Licensed After March 1, 2010

- Any new licensed food operation opening after March 1, 2010 must have a certified person in charge per shift.

Existing Operations

- Any licensed food operation that has been implicated in a foodborne disease outbreak.
- Any licensed food operation that fails to have a knowledgeable person in charge per shift or has failed to maintain sanitary conditions.

During this three hour, interactive training, participants will gain an understanding of safe food handling, personal hygiene, cross-contamination and cleaning/sanitizing. All participants will receive a Level 1 Certificate in Food Protection from the Ohio Department of Health.

To enroll please return this section along with a $35 check payable to:
