 California Family Rights Act (CRFA)

Part A: For Completion by the Employee

Instructions to the EMPLOYEE: Please Complete Part A before giving this form to your family member or his/her health care provider. The law permits us to require that you submit a timely, complete, and sufficient medical certification to support a request for leave to care for a covered family member with a serious health condition. Your response is required to obtain or retain the benefit of FMLA/CFRA protections. Failure to provide a complete and sufficient medical certification may result in a denial of your leave request. You have 15 calendar days to return this form.

Definition of a Serious Health Condition

Serious health condition is any illness, injury, impairment, physical or mental condition that involves:

- Any period of incapacity or treatment in connection with or consequent to an overnight stay in a hospital, hospice, or residential medical care facility; or
- Continuing treatment by a health care provider for one or more of the following:
 - Any period of incapacity due to a chronic serious health condition that:
 - Requires periodic (at least two visit per year) visits for treatment
 - Continues over an extended period of time; and
 - May cause episodic rather than a continuing period of incapacity (e.g., asthma, diabetes, epilepsy, etc.)
- Any period of incapacity which is long-term due to a condition for which treatment may not be effective (e.g., Alzheimer's disease)
- Any period of absence required to receive multiple treatments (including the period of recovery) either for restorative surgery after an accident or other injury, or for a chronic condition.

A Serious Health Condition Is Generally Not:

- Allergies, stress, or substance abuse unless inpatient hospital care is provided, or the patient is incapacitated for more than three calendar days and is under the continuing care of a health care provider, or the patient has a serious long-term health conditions; or
- Voluntary treatment or surgery inpatient hospital care is required.

Department of Labor regulations for the Family and Medical Leave Act define a "health care provider" as a doctor of medicine or osteopathy, podiatrist, dentist, chiropractor, clinical psychologist, optometrist, nurse practitioner, nurse-midwife, or clinical social worker, physicians assistant, who is authorized to practice by the State and performing within the scope of their practice as defined by State law, or a Christian Science practitioner. A health care provider also is any provider from whom the University or the employee's group health plan will accept certification of a serious health condition to substantiate a claim for benefits.
