Dear Parents and Carers

Modern Languages Sixth Form Study Day: Friday 22nd February 2013

I am writing today with details of an opportunity for your child to take part in this year's free Study Day for Modern Languages organised by the University of Oxford. Last year's event attracted large numbers of sixth formers, who gave overwhelmingly positive feedback.

The study day – aimed at students of French, German and Spanish in Years 12 and 13 will take place at the Department of Education. It will focus on topics of interest to sixth form language students (based on the exam boards' prescribed topic areas) and will comprise a series of workshop sessions led by groups of student teachers. The study day gives trainee teachers from the university the opportunity to plan and deliver A Level teaching, and gives our students the opportunity to have a day of intensive language learning related to their studies.

Attendance at this study day is voluntary and students will not be accompanied by a teacher from The Cherwell School. They will be expected to make their own way to and from the Department of Education.

Provisional programme for the day:

09.30 - 09.45	Registration
09.45 - 10.00	Welcome and arrangements for the day
10.00 - 12.00	Morning sessions
12.15 - 13.00	Lunch – bring packed lunch to eat in the department
12.25 – 12.55	Presentation on applying to Oxford and other universities for undergraduate study (bring lunch!)
13.00 - 15.00	Afternoon sessions

To reserve a place for this study day, please fill in and return the slip below as soon as possible, and by Friday 18th January at the latest.
