PINE TREE COUNCIL
BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA

CAMP STAFF MANUAL 2014

DEAR CAMP HINDS STAFF MEMBER,

Congratulations on being selected to be a part of the 2014 Hinds Camp Staff Family! This summer we will have the opportunity to provide our Scouts with programs that will allow them to challenge themselves, experience new adventures and build skills and confidence to last a life time. We have the responsibility to instill values, be role models and give everyone who walks through the gates of Camp Hinds the greatest summer camp experience of their lives. While this is our vision, we know that it is you, the camp staff, that will help to make this program come alive!

This staff manual has been prepared to give you a better idea of what staff life will be like and how to make the most of your opportunities. It is the responsibility of each employee to read and understand this manual. If anything is unclear to you, please ask for an explanation.

One of the most rewarding parts of being on a camp staff is the friendships and the life lessons you as a staff member will be a part of this summer. Every camper and staff member that sets foot inside Camp Hinds makes an impact with that they do and how they carry themselves. You will have a chance this summer to make a difference not only in the life of a Scout, but in your personal lives as well. You will be challenged, but we know you will exceed our expectations. Make the most of this opportunity in every way possible, every day. Strive for excellence...

*Have you been half asleep and have you heard voices?
I've heard them calling my name.
Is this the sweet sound that called the young sailors.
The voice might be one and the same.
I've heard it too many times to ignore it.
It's something that I'm supposed to be.
Someday we'll find it, the rainbow connection.
The lovers, the dreamers and me.*

- Kermit the Frog, "Rainbow Connection"

In The Spirit of Scouting,

The Golden Eyed Kaddywumpus and Lord Baden Powell

WHAT IS OUR PURPOSE?

Summer Camp is Scouting's outdoor education center. Outdoor adventure is the promise made to boys when they join Scouting. Boys yearn for outdoor programs that stir their imagination and interest. In the outdoors, boys have opportunities to acquire skills that make them more self-reliant. They can explore canoe and hiking trails and complete challenges they first thought were beyond their ability.

Summer Camp is also the laboratory of Scouting where the council leaders, the unit leaders, and the Scouts work together to learn the best that Scouting can offer in developing better units, qualified leadership and skillful, self-reliant boys and young men. Here a boy learns how to live in a democracy by working in the patrol and troop.

There is a common thread of purpose and method that runs through every part of the camping program of Scouting. Our aim is to clearly define that thread in each part of the program so that the purpose of Scouting will be made clear and the common methods that are followed will unify the camp staff as a team dedicated to the highest ideals in service.

What camping is and what camping does are described here to remind us of our goals:

- ★ Organized camping is a creative, educational experience in cooperative group living in the outdoors. It uses the resources of the natural surroundings to contribute significantly to physical, mental, spiritual, and social growth.
- ★ Camping contributes to good health through supervised activity, sufficient rest, good fun, and wholesome companionship.
- ★ Camping aids in spiritual growth by helping campers recognize and appreciate the handiwork of God in nature.
- ★ Camping contributes to the social development by providing experiences in which campers learn to deal practically and effectively with living situations.
- ★ Camping is an experience in citizenship training, providing through its community of campers the medium for democratic participation in decision making, planning, and carrying out activities at their own level.
- ★ Camping contributes to the development of self-reliance and resourcefulness by providing learning experiences in which campers acquire knowledge, skills, and attitudes essential to their well being.

GOAL OF THE CAMP STAFF

Always remember that the goal of Camp is to give every Scout the greatest Scout Camp experience of their lives! We will do this by having fun-filled, challenging and rewarding experiences. This will require the full talents and dedication of every staff member beyond the written requirements of their job. Remember, the staff is not just a team, we are family. We need to work together to achieve our goal!

You were selected for staff because you demonstrate certain basic qualities and live by the highest Scouting standards. You show evidence of acceptance of the Scout Oath and Law as guiding principles in your daily life. You practice good sportsmanship, play the game, and be consistently resourceful at times of special need. You also set the example and serve as a role-model for those around you!

THE SCOUT OATH & LAW AS IT PERTAINS TO CAMP STAFF

The principles set forth in the Scout Oath and Law are the principles that guide every endeavor and action in camp. We become the prime motivators in exemplifying this way of life to each Scout in camp. Remember, the Scouts look up to you; you become their role models!

SCOUT OATH

ON MY HONOR I WILL DO MY BEST
TO DO MY DUTY TO GOD AND MY COUNTRY
AND TO OBEY THE SCOUT LAW;
TO HELP OTHER PEOPLE AT ALL TIME;
TO KEEP MYSELF PHYSICALLY STRONG,
MENTALLY AWAKE AND MORALLY STRAIGHT.

SCOUT LAW

"A SCOUT IS TRUSTWORTHY... LOYAL...
HELPFUL... FRIENDLY... COURTEOUS...
KIND... OBEDIENT... CHEERFUL...
THRIFTY... BRAVE... CLEAN...
AND REVERENT"

A SCOUT IS TRUSTWORTHY: Through your life as a staff member you will find that trust and success go hand in hand. The camp has specific requirements outlined for its personnel. Your Camp Director will entrust to you duties and responsibilities related to your assignment. Your very attitude in taking on an assignment is directly reflected on the Scouts with whom you deal.

During your period of employment, the staff members' full time is at the disposal of the camp. Each day will present certain opportunities for personal recreation and program participation. These opportunities are planned so as not to interfere with the campers' use of the facilities.

Each staff member receives a time-off period each week. Your supervisor and/or Camp Director will determine the period you will have off. Staff are obligated to be in uniform when on duty unless excused by the Director. Appearance when in camp and off-duty is also important. Wear appropriate, non-controversial clothing. Remember, unit leaders and Scouts do not know when you are on duty, or off.

A SCOUT IS LOYAL: Loyalty to the camp and to your associates is essential to requisites for each staff member. You should constantly be observant and concerned about matters affecting the total harmony of the camp and bring such matters to the attention of the Camp Director.

A SCOUT IS HELPFUL: It begins with an attitude of helpfulness to the newly arrived Scout, his family and leaders. Apart from the service rendered, that first impression of helpfulness means so much. Your effort will be greatly appreciated.

A SCOUT IS FRIENDLY: As you pass a Scout or leader on the trail, even if you've never met, say "Hi!" A friendly word costs nothing, yet gives so much good will. Be a friend to all, not just a clique of buddies. Be a brother to every Scout in the fullest sense.

A SCOUT IS COURTEOUS: You represent the Pine Tree Council and the Boy Scouts of America as you deal with boys, leaders, parents, or the public. In your visits to nearby towns, you represent Camp Hinds. All this implies a certain code of personal conduct that will reflect credit upon you, the camp, the council, and the BSA. Courtesy may be interpreted as respect for the time of others. Be on time always. Above all, it means a reputation for reliability and promptness.

A SCOUT IS KIND: Kindness is often interpreted in its relationship to animal life. Show boys how to be thoughtful to the animals in your camp. Kindness and consideration for others, however, is of even greater importance.

A SCOUT IS OBEDIENT: A staff member carries out his responsibilities to perfection and responds to direction of supervisors and the Camp Director. This does not call for unquestioning obedience, but it does call for personal trustworthiness and a loyalty to the camp and the Camp Director.

A SCOUT IS CHEERFUL: A happy camp, a spirited camp, is a successful camp. Happiness is contagious, particularly in a Scout Camp. No one is in a better position to promote and simulate this attitude than you are. Each staff member, regardless of position, should take it upon himself to motivate and give an outlook of cheerfulness and happiness in the minds of all.

A SCOUT IS THRIFTY: Each staff member should consider his responsibilities in protecting and conserving the equipment, physical property, and resources of the camp. You are in a position to save thousands of dollars that might have to be used to replace or repair damaged property.

A SCOUT IS BRAVE: This summer you represent the largest organization for boys in the world and you are an employee of one of the finest of Scout Camps. You represent Scouting in all aspects. You believe in the Scout Oath and Law, otherwise you wouldn't, or shouldn't, be here.

A SCOUT IS CLEAN: Your personal living quarters are to be an example of cleanliness and orderliness. It is obvious that if your quarters are disorderly or dirty, campers can hardly be expected to do better.

A SCOUT IS REVERENT: Being faithful in his/her religious duties becomes of great importance to us as camp staff members because of the force our example has in molding the attitudes of those who look to us as the inspiration for right attitudes and high ideals.

All staff members must be registered members of the Boy Scouts of America. If you are registered in another council, you must provide a copy of your registration card to the camp office. SOCIAL NETWORKING SITES

We are aware that many of you have online profiles on social networking websites such as Twitter, Facebook, Snapchat, and Tumblr. In fact, there are Facebook groups dedicated to Camp Hinds, Camp Hinds Staff Members as well as generic Boy Scout of America and Order of the Arrow Groups. We recognize that these social networking websites are used to keep in contact with friends, share photos and experiences and even promote yourself to potential employers. While we do not discourage you from using social networking sites, we do want you to be aware of what you place on your virtual profiles. What would someone who does not know you say about you after quickly glancing at your profile? What message is your profile sending to your employer/Scout leaders? What would the Scouts, who look up to you, see/say/duplicate as a result of viewing your profile? Are you upholding the ideals, aims and methods of the Boy Scouts, Pine Tree Council and Camp Hinds? Be aware of who can see your profile or who you invite to be friends with you. A staff member may be called in to discuss his online presence with the Camp Director and disciplinary action may be taken if it is of a health and safety, youth protection, or illegal nature.

MEDICAL INFORMATION

The camp medical staff is overseen by Dr. Donald Burgess - Chief of Pediatrics at Southern Maine Medical Center. A licensed health officer is in camp, on duty at all times, to handle all medical emergencies. If the injury or illness is serious, the person is brought to a local health care facility. Written agreements are in place between Camp Hinds and local health care providers to care for our campers, staff and guests.

ILLNESSES & INJURIES

All medical illnesses or injuries must be reported to the health officers in camp. If you are feeling ill, you must report to the health lodge and inform your Area Director. The health officer will determine if you need a replacement for your job. Unless the health officer dismisses you from your duties, you are required to be at your program area. In the event of a serious illness requiring an extend period of bed rest, it may be suggested that you return home until better. All treatment by the health officer will be recorded in the camp medical logbook. A Workman Compensation form is filled out by the health officer upon in the event of any serious injuries. The health officer is available at scheduled times to administer medications as needed. An exception may be made for a limited amount of medications to be carried by the Scout or adult for life-threatening conditions including: bee-sting kits, nitroglycerin, inhalers, and medication specifically prescribed “to be carried at all times” by a physician. Camp supplies an adequate supply of over the counter medications such as pain relievers and antihistamines, along with first aid supplies, so there is no need to bring these items to camp.

WORK SCHEDULE

While typically program hours are between 7:00am-8:30pm, your work schedule will be determined by the Camp Director and is subject to change as conditions warrant. These changes are up to the discretion of the Camp Director.

WORK HOURS – TIME OFF

The camp work week runs from Sunday at 11:29 AM to Friday night after the closing campfire and staff meeting (approx. 9:30 PM). Those staff members needing transportation home should make arrangements for their ride to pick them up in the Cadigan parking lot following the staff meeting.

All staff members are expected to leave camp during their time off, unless previous arrangements have been made with the Camp Director. If you have permission to remain in camp during your day off, you are expected to follow all camp rules (being in uniform, permission for nights out, etc.)

WORK HOURS – SLEEP

Getting enough sleep can make a difference between having a great or poor summer at camp! Quiet time in campsites is from 9:30 PM - 7:00 AM. Staff should be courteous of this quiet time and conduct themselves accordingly.

A siesta is scheduled for rest time everyday directly following lunch. This is time for staff to catch up on their rest if needed or use this for some relaxation or socializing with other staff members. The swimming area will be open for staff during the siesta time.

WORK HOURS – STAFF CURFEW & QUIET HOURS

Staff members under the age of eighteen must be in their own cabin by 10:00 PM. Exceptions for special occasions must be made prior to curfew time with the Camp Director. The curfew time for staff members that are 18-20, to be in their own quarters, is midnight.

In the event that staff members are becoming tired or run down the Camp Administration has the final authority in the staff curfew and quiet time. Curfew and quiet times can and will be earlier if the need arises.

WORK HOURS – NIGHTS OUT

Camp Hinds' nights-out policy states that all staff members must be signed back into camp by 11:59 p.m. Occasionally, the camp may sponsor a special night out for staff groups (Funtown, Old Orchard, etc.) under the supervision of the camp administration. These nights may occasionally go past midnight. No youth staff members will be allowed on a night out without having a night out form signed by a parent/guardian on file in the camp office.

Staff members are encouraged to have one night out of camp each week. C.I.T.'s and other 15 year olds must be accompanied by an adult over the age of 21. Only licensed drivers over the age of 18 are allowed to transport staff members. Staff members are not allowed to drive any vehicle other than their own.

All nights out must be requested in writing on the camp night out form.

Staff members wanting a night out must get approval from 1) their immediate supervisor, 2) the Camp Commissioner, 3) the program director and 4) the camp director.

Normally nights out will start after 8:40 PM. You are expected to be in uniform, at your job until 8:30 PM.

WORK HOURS – EARLY NIGHTS OUT

Each area/department will be allowed two early nights out during the summer. These are encouraged to promote team-building and fun for the staff within each area. Area Directors are encouraged to plan an early night out, with their staff, at the beginning of the camp season and again towards the end of camp. Early nights out need to be approved 4 days in advance. Early nights out will start after evening retreat. Staff are expected to be in uniform and participate in retreat before starting their early night out.

SUBSTITUTES

On occasion of early nights out, sickness, family obligations, etc. it may be necessary to find coverage for your camp duties. When this need arises, you are expected to find a substitute who is age and ability appropriate to cover your job responsibility. Staff members are encouraged to assist each other in this task and to work together for the benefit of camp and its' staff.

LEAVING CAMP (SIGN IN/SIGN OUT)

Any time a staff member leaves camp, it is their responsibility to sign in and out of camp, naming their destination, at the camp office. This includes when you leave camp for days off, nights out, camp errands, etc. You are not allowed to leave camp without the permission of the camp administration. Leaving camp, without permission, could result in your dismissal from staff. No one is allowed to be beyond the camp boundaries, or on the green trail or past MacMillan cabin after program hours without permission of the camp office.

STAFF LOUNGE

A Staff Lounge is provided for staff use after program hours. Generally speaking it is available for use during siesta and after 8:30 PM. A TV and VCR/DVD are available for staff use. Movies to be shown must be approved by the Camp Administration. Personal items left in the Staff Lounge are done so at the owner's risk of them being lost or damaged.

STAFF QUARTERS

Our staff cabins are designated by the Camp Director as either Youth Male or Female Cabins, Adult Male or Female Cabins, or Family Cabins. Generally speaking, most of our staff stay in cabins. Certain jobs, or due to the lack of enough cabins, may dictate that you live in a tent.

ELECTRONIC DEVICES AT CAMP

Electronic Devices are not to be present during program hours (7AM – 8:30PM). Staff members are allowed to have certain items in their cabins, but some of these items have no place in program areas. Unacceptable devices include cell phones, beepers, electronic games, “novelty” items, portable computers, video cameras, etc. Any exceptions will be granted by the camp administration only.

CAMP HINDS BEHAVIOR MANAGEMENT POLICY

The camp administration views behavior modification as an on-going process and will take as much opportunity as possible to counsel and coach an errant staff members back within the guidelines of proper staff behavior, so long as the unwanted behavior is not of a health and safety, youth protection, or illegal nature. All decisions regarding behavior management and dismissal are subject to the judgment of the camp administration and are based upon the situation and behavior in question.

There is no “strike” system for behavior modification at Camp Hinds – opportunities for correction are given, as stated above, based upon the situation at hand. Most unwanted behaviors will be corrected by a verbal warning followed by suggested corrective measures being issued to the errant staff member. Severe or repeated behaviors of an unwanted nature will result in a meeting with the administration, and a discussion for an agreed upon solution to the behavior, with set parameters for success. Extreme behaviors or actions could result in dismissal from camp for the summer.

Some situations will result in a phone call to the parents, if the staff member is under 18 years of age.
